Assailant Disfigures La Pietà

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A man who told police "I am God, I am Michelangelo" disfigured the Florentine sculptor's statue of the Pietà in St. Peter's Basilica with a sledge hammer Sunday, but the Vatican's chief engineer said he believed most of the damage could be repaired.

A horrified crowd of tourists and Romans saw the tall, bearded man jump over the marble railing in front of Michelangelo's 472-year-old masterpiece, pull a 12-pound hammer from his folded raincoat and, with cries of "I am Jesus Christ," attack the statue of the Virgin Mary cradling the body of the crucified Jesus in her lap.

"The man was holding onto the Virgin with one hand and

Bomb Blasts Irish District

40 Said Injured
In Latest Blast

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — A big bomb blasted an industrial district in north Belfast today, injuring at least 40 persons, the army said. A spokesman said it appeared to be an attempt by the Irish Republican Army "to cause the maximum casualties in a Protestant area."

The spokesman said the bomb contained about 150 pounds of gelignite.

The bomb was left in a parked car. A caller who said he was an IRA member told the army it would go off in 30 minutes; it exploded in 14.

Meanwhile, militant Protestants backed off from a major battle with British troops Sunday night after a day of skirmishing from behind burning barricades.

The barricades were thrown up in two Protestant areas to protest the army's refusal to attack the barricaded Bogside district of Londonderry, where the Irish Republican Army rules 35,000 Roman Catholics.

After clashes between troops and Protestant vigilantes manning the barricades, the militant Ulster Vanguard Movement agreed to take them down but said: "Unless something is done to satisfy us, a civil war is just around the corner."

Meanwhile, in the continuing battle between Catholics and Protestants, a teen-age boy and girl were gunned down outside a school in the Catholic Ballymurphy area. The girl was in critical condition. Later, three teen-age Protestant boys were wounded when two carloads of gunmen opened up on them with automatic weapons.

The IRA murdered a young Irish Catholic soldier in the British Army on leave from Germany to visit his family in the Bogside. He was found shot in the back of the head, and the official wing of the IRA said he had been executed as a spy.

It was the 333rd death recorded in the three years of communal warfare in Northern Ireland.

Gasoline Tax

Cash Distributed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gasoline tax revenue totaling $3,696,000 was distributed in May to counties and townships in Ohio, State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson said today.

Each village and city usually is allocated $1 per motor vehicle registered in the municipality, he said. All gasoline tax revenue are used for street and roadway purposes.

Trumbull County received $20,000; Lorain $14,400, and Franklin and Stark counties $13,600 each, he said.

Protesters Fail To Show At Pentagon

No Disruption
Of Traffic Seen;
Troops Held Ready

WASHINGTON (AP) — Workers came to their jobs at the Pentagon today and found no trace of the previously announced blockade which antiwar demonstrators had threatened to establish at the giant Defense Department headquarters.

By the time most workers arrived there was only a small group of about 100 who appeared inclined to demonstrate but in fact were only sitting on the sidewalk across from one entrance, hoping for others to arrive.

Federal workers and uniformed military officers passed by them and among them unhindered.

The entrance, however, was protected by special federal building guards who checked the passes held by visitors and newsmen before admitting them, and a team of observers could be seen on the roof of the Pentagon.

The Defense Department said it would use troops, if necessary, to help police keep the world's largest office building open for business.

A battalion of military police, 400 to 500 men, was to be moved inside the Pentagon before dawn.

Dr. Sidney Peck, an organizer of the demonstration, said that if 3,000 to 5,000 persons turned out for the Pentagon disruption, "we'll be doing very well."

The march on the Pentagon was to be the second phase of a weekend of antiwar activity in the capital. Up to 15,000 persons gathered peacefully at the Capitol Sunday but sporadic violence erupted between police and hundreds of youths on the fringes of the rally. Police used tear gas and arrested nearly 200 persons along Constitution Avenue between the Capitol and the White House.

More than 30 speakers talked to the rally for 2½ hours Sunday on the west front of the Capitol but only one member of Congress, Rep. Bella Abzug, D-N.Y., was present.

By midafternoon, a splinter group which had left the speeches began a confrontation with police at the Peace Monument, at the foot of the steps on the west front of the Capitol.

They barricaded the street, overturned trash cans, broke lights, uprooted street signs, and harassed the police.

Some demonstrators threw rocks, bricks and stones, bottles and sticks at police who watched from a distance.

Appeal Scheduled On Meat Rules

CINCINNATI (AP) — The U.S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals was scheduled to hear an appeal today of a U.S. District Court ruling that Michigan's tough packaged meat law should stand in the state rather than the weaker federal law.

The appellants included Hormel and Co. of Austin, Minn., and Armour and Co. and Wilson and Co. of Phoenix, Ariz.

They contend that complying with the state statute means additional costs of thousands of dollars each year.

Soviet Summit Meet Aims Studied

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Only two weeks ago the chances that the Kremlin would countenance a summit meeting with President Nixon at this time were, in the view of many, worth less than a plugged kopek. Now the summit is about to begin on schedule. Why?

Behind the apparent eagerness of General Secretary Leonid Brezhnev and his colleagues in the Soviet Communist party leadership to meet this week with the President are a number of major Soviet policy goals.

It had seemed on May 8 that Nixon's decision to mine North Vietnamese ports to slow Soviet supplies would wash out the summit. It didn't. Although the Russians vow to continue supplying billions of rubles worth of hardware to Hanoi, the Vietnam situation is getting in the way of some major Soviet goals.

The Kremlin eye has long been intently fixed on Europe. Its drive for a security conference goes back many years and recently has had the highest priority. Moscow wants Europe to agree to the idea of "renunciation of force" in the same pattern as the West German-Soviet treaty just ratified in Bonn.

What else do the Russians want from the summit? They want expanded economic and trade ties with the West and the United States and access to Western technology for application to the Soviet consumer economy. The Soviet system is more than 50 years old now and its domestic economy still suffers from comparison with Western standards. The Politburo long has been feeling the pressure of popular impatience.

The Soviet economy could make effective use of some of the enormous investment in superweapons and defense. Some sort of agreement on limitation of missiles would be attractive to Brezhnev, as it would to Nixon. Assaults to the north and west of Hue were considered an effort to renew heavy pressure on the city's defenses rather than the start of a drive to capture the former imperial capital.

The best "educated guess" among U.S. officials is that the mining of North Vietnam's harbors and the air and naval attacks on its railroads and highways will reduce its capabilities to sustain the offensive from nine months to four months.

Some U.S. authorities believe that Hanoi is facing the crucial decision of whether to press ahead with its offensive and use up large quantities of supplies, or dig in and try to hold the territory it has captured for political leverage.

"A third alternative," says one official, "is that they could go back, hoping we will turn off the embargo, just wait another year or so and start all over. They are very patient."

Believe Hanoi Reassessing Strategy Due To Allied Moves

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command in Vietnam is convinced that Hanoi is reassessing its battlefield strategy because of President Nixon's military and diplomatic moves, including his summit meeting in Moscow this week.

It is the consensus of U.S. analysts that the mining of North Vietnam's ports and the heavy bombing of its rail lines and highways are forcing the Communist leaders to take stock of their assets before deciding on the next step in their offensive in South Vietnam.

None of the attacks in the past three weeks have been on the scale of the multidivision assaults that captured Quang Tri province on May 1. And despite heavy fighting on all three fronts in the South over the weekend, officials still find the overall level of activity lower than it was during the first month of the offensive.

"If you compare it to what was happening in April, there is still some kind of lull," said one official.

Assaults to the north and west of Hue were considered an effort to renew heavy pressure on the city's defenses rather than the start of a drive to capture the former imperial capital.

MOSCOW (AP) — More than 100,000 Muscovites turned out today to see President Nixon as he drove to the Kremlin to start a week's session of summitry, tackling many of the problems dividing the world's two most powerful nations.

The airport scene was cool, correct and official. But Muscovites knew Nixon was coming and they turned out on the motorcade route. The crowds were mainly silent as the official limousines zipped past. In some places people were standing shoulder to shoulder, several ranks deep.

That was a contrast to the reception Nixon received three months ago in Peking. There no crowds lined the streets and the airport greeting was unusually subdued.

Agreements on arms limitations, trade, and cooperation in outer space are expected to emerge from this first official visit to Moscow by an American president.

Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev, the country's No. 1 man, was not at the airport when Nixon, the first American president to visit Moscow, stepped from his blue and silver jet. Protocol did not require Brezhnev's presence, since he holds no state executive post.

Nixon emerged hatless from the presidential jet smiled and descended the ramp to shake hands with President Nikolai V. Podgorny and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, who led a Soviet welcoming party.

Mrs. Nixon, dressed in a lilac suit, was at the President's side. Afterward, Nixon and Podgorny inspected detachment of crack Soviet troops.

Nixon looked fresh and attentive as he stood beside Podgorny.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, called for "mutually advantageous cooperation" with the United States and said the attitude of Soviet

Air War Said Freer Under Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. commanders are much freer to make military decisions in this round of the air war against North Vietnam than were their predecessors during the 1965-68 bombing campaign.

President Nixon and Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird have approved certain types of targets such as petroleum depots, railroads, bridges and MIG jet fields, and have okayed striking military targets anywhere they may be found in North Vietnam.

Acting within this relatively broad authority, Gen. Creighton W. Abrams and other top U.S. commanders may decide which specific sites to hit, how many planes to send, what types of bombs to use, and when to launch the raids.

Thus, as Pentagon sources explain it, Abrams acted within his discretionary power in ordering a big raid last week on a fuel-tank farm on the outskirts of Hanoi.

But Washington still retains the veto.

As a practical matter, Abrams and Adm. John S. McCain, the U.S. Pacific commander, keep the Pentagon informed on bombing plans. But the situation is a far cry from the days when President Lyndon B. Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara called the air-war shots.

Zip Code Doesn't Speed Mail, AP Survey Discloses

By DONALD SANDERS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adding that five-digit zip code to first-class or airmail letters doesn't guarantee earlier delivery, a new nationwide test of mail service discloses.

The mailing of nearly 800 test letters by six Associated Press bureaus in as many cities nationwide showed that eight times out of 10 letters without zip codes reached their destinations as fast or faster than zip-coded letters mailed at the same time and place.

A similar survey conducted 15 months earlier produced about the same conclusions.

Officials of the U.S. Postal Service say that zip codes primarily were introduced to aid in processing mail, make possible the hiring of less skilled persons without having to train them intensively and allow a shift to optical sorting machines.

"Not a great many are in operation now, but we are adding them as rapidly as they can be produced and installed," said Joseph F. Jones, director of the Postal Service's Office of Logistics. "The zip code will play an increasingly important role, and allow us to employ more persons with less skills."

The AP survey also indicated:

—Spending the extra three cents for an airmail stamp doesn't necessarily guarantee quicker delivery. In the case of 45 per cent of the letters in the survey, the airmail letters were delivered at the same time as first-class ones.

—Considerable variations exist in delivery time, often not related to distances involved. For example, letters mailed from Los Angeles to Washington reached the capital faster than those mailed from Washington or New York to Los Angeles.

—In three of the test cities, St. Louis, Los Angeles and Houston, the Postal Service handled local letters in an average of one day. The average time in St. Louis was 20½ hours, compared to 33 in Washington.

—Since the Postal Service does not generally operate on Saturday afternoon and Sunday, Friday is the poorest day to mail letters. In most cases they are not delivered until Monday morning; in at least a dozen cases delivery was delayed until Tuesday.

"We are trying to improve the weekend problem which has been acute," Jones said.

The AP survey was designed to test long-distance as well as local service, involving Chicago in addition to the cities already

Assailant Disfigures La Pieta

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A man who told police "I am God, I am Michelangelo" disfigured the Florentine sculptor's statue of the Pieta in St. Peter's Basilica with a sledge hammer Sunday, but the Vatican's chief engineer said he believed most of the damage could be repaired.

A horrified crowd of tourists and Romans saw the tall, bearded man jump over the marble railing in front of Michelangelo's 472-year-old masterpiece, pull a 12-pound hammer from his folded raincoat and, with cries of "I am Jesus Christ," attack the statue of the Virgin Mary cradling the body of the crucified Jesus in her lap.

"The man was holding onto the Virgin with one hand and "clobbering it with the other," an American tourist, Beatrice Pech of Detroit, said. "He was screaming as if he wanted everyone to hear and see. I felt sick. We were so shocked we just didn't know what to do."

The left arm of the Virgin with its hand turned outward broke away and shattered into smaller pieces as it hit the floor. The nose of the Madonna was chopped away and the left side of her face, including the half-closed eye, was disfigured. The figure of Christ was undamaged.

The vandal, identified as Laszlo Toth, a native of Hungary now an Australian citizen, fled from the statue and began pushing his way through the stunned crowd before an Italian soldier and others seized him by his long hair. Vatican authorities turned him over to Italian police. The police said he told them, "I am God, I am Michelangelo. I have reached the age of Christ and now I can die."

Toth, who will be 34 next week, was charged with damaging art works and offending religion by attacking an object of worship, offenses carrying four-year prison terms.

After delivering his weekly blessing to the crowd in St. Peter's Square, Pope Paul visited the damaged statue. He knelt before it and prayed briefly, then heard a report on the incident.

"It will never be the same again," the saddened pontiff said. "Sheer madness. Why such an act to a work that belongs to all humanity?"

Francesco Vacchini, the Vatican's chief engineer, said, "The damage is grave. There are too many small pieces. But we think we can restore so much of it that it can have a good similarity to what it was."

For hours after the attack, workmen crawled on their hands and knees about the statue, collecting every fragment of marble. The damaged statue was covered with a red drape.

Turlylocs Wins Famed Frog Jump

ANGELS CAMP, Calif. (AP) — After starting out under the threat of bad weather and fear of violence, the 1972 Calaveras County Jumping Frog Jubilee ended in a relaxed atmosphere under sunny skies.

Instead of an expected crowd of 77,000, the three-day event—which doubles as the county fair—drew about 10,000. Officials blamed primarily the bad weather but said publicity about last year's problems with hippies, motorcycle gangs and traffic also played a part in keeping people away.

A frog named Turlylocs leaped 17 feet 11 inches in three jumps to win the $300 first prize in Sunday's finals, but it was not good enough to top the world record of 19 feet 3 and 1-6 inches set in 1966 by Ripple. A prize of $1,200 awaits the owner whose frog breaks the record.

Frog jumping as an annual event began in 1928 in Calaveras County as a revival of a pastime of Gold Rush miners who made "frog races" a serious business.

Mark Twain heard about the custom when he lived near Angels Camp in 1863 and made the name of Calaveras County famous with his tale of a celebrated frog named "Dan'l Webster" who lost the big race when someone filled him with buckshot.

The Soviet economy could make effective use of some of the enormous investment in superweapons and defense. Some sort of agreement on limitation of missiles would be attractive to Brezhnev, as it would to Nixon. There has been some expectation that a beginning, at least, emanating from the strategic arms limitation talks may be ready to memorialize this summit.

leaders was "businesslike and realistic."

Tass, the government news agency, reported on Nixon's meeting with Austrian Chancellor Bruno Kreisky during the President's stop in Salzburg and quoted Kreisky that the Moscow summit was "a major political event of our time."

Nixon spent 36 hours in the picturesque Austrian city, closeted most of the time in the 18th-century Klessheim Palace to work on briefing papers for his talks with Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and other Soviet leaders.

Before leaving Washington Saturday, Nixon said there were opportunities for progress in three areas: arms curbs, trade relations and cooperation in space exploration.

Nixon has said he particularly hopes during his eight days in the Soviet Union to sign a pact with the Russians limiting nuclear weapons. The proposed arms accord has been under negotiation for more than two years.

But Henry A. Kissinger, the President's national security adviser, told newsmen Sunday a number of thorny technical issues still have not been ironed out by the U.S. and Soviet negotiators at the SALT talks in Helsinki, Finland.

Kissinger said both sides have agreed in principle to limit their nuclear arms, but may not be able to reach agreement on some complex technical details in time for a signing during Nixon's visit.

Nixon and Brezhnev will not get down to hard bargaining until Tuesday. However, they will make formal remarks at an official dinner this evening in the Kremlin.

Mrs. Nixon, keeping to a separate schedule, will take a ride on the Moscow subway Tuesday afternoon.

Vietnam is expected to figure in the summit—but just how prominently no American official in the presidential party was willing to guess.

Also a part of Moscow's preparations for the first visit to the Russian capital by an American president was a clampdown on dissident activity.

The most important contribution to the atmosphere of the talks has been the Kremlin's decision to isolate the summit from the U.S. mining of North Vietnamese harbors and its increased bombing of North Vietnam.

Police Checking Thefts, Vandalism

City police are busy investigating several thefts and a vandalism which occurred in the city.

Lloyd Hill, manager of the Soho Station on the Lancaster Pike, reported someone took the coin container from a soft drink machine Saturday night.

Leroy Hawks, 1025 Sumshine St., reported his son's bicycle was stolen from the garage.

Several containers of flowers were taken from the porch of Mrs. Harold Fee, 304 S. Pickaway St., Saturday night.

Someone broke the power antenna off a car belonging to Earl Carroll, 690 E. Ohio St., while it was parked in his driveway.

The charges stem from a Friday night spree in which they committed an estimated $102.20 damage at the Dunlap Co. in Williamsport, stole $28 and cigarettes from the town's ice cream shop, stole two bags of ice from a service station.

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies Warren Straley and David Cooper made simultaneous arrests on the juveniles.

Straley investigated the theft of two bicycles Saturday morning from a garage owned by Harry Cornwell Shull Jr., Williamsport. He found the thieves broke the garage windows with rocks and made off with the bicycles, valued at $50. He traced their tracks to a service station in Williamsport where the building was entered and two bags of ice, valued at $1.20 were taken about 4 a.m. Saturday.

He was then called to a dairy shed in Williamsport where a delivery man found the rear door ajar. Manager of the fast-food restaurant said $28 in cash was missing.

Cooper, in the meantime, was called to investigate a malicious destruction of property claim at the Dunlap Co.

He found the culprits started a pick-up truck and backed it into a corn picker head. They broke three shop windows with rocks and left a combine in operation.

The juveniles were apprehended Saturday after several persons reported spotting them out late Friday night. They admitted to the crimes.

Youths Arrested For Illegal Entry, Destruction, Larceny

Charges of malicious destruction of property, breaking and entering and petit larceny were filed Saturday in Pickaway County Juvenile Court against an 11-year-old Williamsport boy and his 12-year-old accomplice also of that village.

The charges stem from a Friday night spree in which they committed an estimated $102.20 damage at the Dunlap Co. in Williamsport, stole $28 and cigarettes from the town's ice cream shop, stole two bags of ice from a service station.

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies Warren Straley and David Cooper made simultaneous arrests on the juveniles.

Straley investigated the theft of two bicycles Saturday morning from a garage owned by Harry Cornwell Shull Jr., Williamsport. He found the thieves broke the garage windows with rocks and made off with the bicycles, valued at $50.

He traced their tracks to a service station in Williamsport where the building was entered and two bags of ice, valued at $1.20 were taken about 4 a.m. Saturday.

He was then called to a dairy shed in Williamsport where a delivery man found the rear door ajar. Manager of the fast-food restaurant said $28 in cash was missing.

Cooper, in the meantime, was called to investigate a malicious destruction of property claim at the Dunlap Co.

He found the culprits started a pick-up truck and backed it into a corn picker head. They broke three shop windows with rocks and left a combine in operation.

The juveniles were apprehended Saturday after several persons reported spotting them out late Friday night. They admitted to the crimes.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Midnight on Crumlin Road, Protestant streets to the left, Roman Catholic to the right. All is quiet.

At the next street corner squats a British army pig, or armored troop carrier. Soldiers lie under the pig, rifles pointing toward the Catholic side.

Shooting erupts. The throaty rattle of the Irish Republican Army submachine gun is answered by the sharper crack of army rifles.

Half a dozen Protestants are watching, half sheltered by the pig and the corner wall. An old man stand by the wall with a scruffy terrier on a leash made of string.

Bullets zip across the road, but the dog is unconcerned. The old man has one worry: "Don't be standing on the little dog," he says, "or he'll snap at yer."

A few days later come the funerals. Is there another place in the world where people cheer at funerals.

It happens here regularly. The coffin is draped in the green, white and orange of the Irish republic. Inside are the remains of an IRA man, sometimes blown to pieces by one of his own side's faulty bombs.

The procession pulls out for Milton cemetery. At the first vantage point is a cluster of Protestant women waving British Union Jacks. They clap, they sing, they cheer.

There are more cheers at the graveside, this time from the mourners. They are cheers of defiance as an old IRA man delivers the oration, and says, "The fight goes on."

Mary Murphy, a cashier at the Europa Coffee Shop, says she must be lucky. Bombed four times and not a scratch.

Dear Abby: How Did Your Husband Propose?

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: In response to your question: Does anyone remember her marriage proposal? I'm sure my wife does.

Ellen and I had been going together for five years when I finally asked her to marry me. She said she could consider it only if I put it in writing, so I submitted the following, which you may have my permission to reprint:

"Miss Ellen Aston: I, the undersigned, wish to inform you that in accordance with the laws of human nature and common practice, I hereby serve notice that on the fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty seven, I wish to take you as my lawfully wedded wife, to have and to hold until death do us part.

Fred H. Zimmerman" She accepted. This year we shall celebrate our 35th wedding anniversary.

DEAR ABBY: On Dec. 22, 1927, I was in my girl friend's kitchen having a little home-made wine when I reached into my pocket and pulled out 10 or 12 ring settings. I tossed them on the table and said, "Pick out the one you like and I'll have a stone put in it." She did, and that was it. Since it was three days before Christmas that was her Christmas present, too.

F.J.D. IN MENLO PARK DEAR F.J.D.: That's what I call killing two birds with one "stone."

DEAR ABBY: A proposal: Well, that's a matter of opinion, but here's what happened: While holding the match to light my date's cigarette, I said, "I could smoke."

She took one final drag from the cigarette, then she put it out and said, "THAT was my last cigarette!"

And there went my last excuse.

ME AND MY BIG MOUTH DEAR ABBY: Here's my proposal: I got a call at work one afternoon. It was my boy friend of seven months.

"I'm downtown," he said. "Had something to take care of, and since I've already lost a day's work anyway you may as well come down and we'll take our blood tests."

Incidentally, my father picked my husband up at 3 a.m. after our wedding night and THEY went duck hunting.

HAPPY HUNTING WIDOW IN ILLINOIS DEAR WIDOW: Yours was a new kind of "shotgun" wedding!

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of a pair of illegitimate twin boys, now seven months old. Their father (a married man and the father of five legitimate children) proposed to me in the following manner:

"Honey, will you marry me?" I replied, "How can I? You're already married."

He said, "Well I'll get only one year for bigamy."

I turned him down. Who wants a husband who would have two wives and seven children?

FUSSY IN BLOOMINGTON DEAR ABBY: I was 17 and Milton was 18. He was a college freshman and had a part-time job in a jewelry store.

We had gone together for maybe three months when Milton said, "While I can still get the rings wholesale, will you marry me?"

I said, "Yes. When I graduate from high school."

That was 39 years ago. I have new rings, now, but I still have the same old Milton.

HAPPY IN PHILADELPHIA DEAR ABBY: Do I remember my marriage proposal? How could I forget it?

I called my boyfriend from the doctor's office and when I told him what the doctor told me, he asked, "How soon can you get married?"

I said, "The sooner the better."

The license, blood test and "I do's, took us two days. I think we broke a record.

Oscar De La Renta Shows Sweater Vests, Pleat Skirts

By ANN HENCKEN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Designer Oscar de la Renta's cheeks were polka-dotted with well-wisher's lipstick kisses Wednesday after his fall collection showing.

"I have four dresses from the evening I have to steal!" said a smiling tanned Christina Ford after the show.

"The color and style are out of this world," she said.

The cardigan sweater, which was strong in his Something and Boutique collections, was treated with glitter stripes today. It matched sweater vests and long pleated skirts.

"The important thing about the 1972 silhouette will be its volume. Not bulk, but looseness controlled," said Oscar, bringing out a number of full, unsashed chemise smock dresses in flowered satin chiffons.

His colorful caftans had volume, too. One billowed out to show a huge sequined butterfly, the theme of the collection, which is priced at $225 to $3,500.

"I bought Francoise a model of a butterfly in diamonds this year in Italy, and I had it copied," said Oscar.

His day clothes included red, green and blue plaid coats—the chemise in gray flannel — and the montone look done best in a beige quilted jacket, sweater and suede pants.

The collection, especially for evening, was a bright melange of color and pattern.

At Geoffrey Beene, however, the clothes took on a quieter, more sculptured look.

The strongest shape in this strong collection was the harness jumper. It's worn with white-ribbed sweaters and head-hugging caps.

"I was very interested in the sweater look, showing the sweater to the maximum degree," said Beene following the show.

He took this new jumper idea straight through—from gray flannel jumpsuits to silk surrah evening dresses.

The harness pattern is stitched onto jackets—and traced over the bodice of a white silk surrah evening dress.

More Beene ideas:

—Bright solid pinks and grays—and cheerful wool gingham.

"I've never used such bright colors. However, it's time for light clothes," says Beene.

—Coats with very full backs and no buttons.

—The return of the afternoon dress, in basic black. "It's been a long time since that type of dress has been around," says Beene.

He and de la Renta used a lot of pearls with their evening styles.

Woman's Pregnancies Keep Her From Going To Prison

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Betty Lou Miller was sentenced to a two-year prison term for aggravated assault in 1970 but, for a third time, she has been able to win a delay by announcing her pregnancy in court.

The 22-year-old Miami woman was convicted Aug. 18, 1970, after her former boyfriend testified she shot him in the back three times during a quarrel.

Circuit Court Judge Paul Baker postponed sending Mrs. Miller to prison immediately because she told him she was with child. At that time, she had another infant, Charlotte, now 3.

Mrs. Miller appeared before Baker several months later and told him she had delivered the child Creghton, now 2 — but was pregnant again. Baker again put off the sentence.

The woman appeared before Baker again Friday and announced she had delivered Carlton, now 8-months-old, but is expecting another child.

"How long is this going to go on," Baker asked.

"For the record," her attorney Paul Pollack interposed, "I have not instructed Betty Lou Miller to keep getting pregnant ... just for the record."

Mrs. Miller then told the judge the next child is due in January.

"That's nine months from now," the judge observed. "I don't know how she knows she's pregnant yet."

"But I am," Mrs. Miller insisted.

Baker delayed the case until June 20 and ordered the woman to return to court at that time with a certificate of pregnancy.

Outside the courtroom, Mrs. Miller told a reporter:

"This just keeps happening accidentally. I'm not getting pregnant on purpose."

Man is making a mess of the world's water supplies.

Everywhere the story is the same. Polluted waters, sources drying up, a story of wanton, thoughtless treatment that is causing a sickness in streams and lakes. Birds and water life are suffering heavy casualties, and the health — perhaps the very existence of mankind is at stake.

No one can pretend the problem has developed recently. For a hundred years, the more far-sighted conservationists have been stressing the urgency whenever and wherever they could find a listener.

But in the midst of apparent plenty, their voices made little impression against public apathy and the attitude that "water is everyone's and I have a right to do with it what I want."

By 1980, it has been estimated, demand for water in the U.S. will be double what it is today. In some regions the pace of demand has overwhelmed the ability of municipalities to supply water and construct waste treatment plants.

Unless drastic action is taken soon, the U.S. will face extreme shortages by the end of the century. Stripping of forest lands has led to severe drought and flood cycles, as water is insufficiently conserved by nature's great reservoir agent — trees.

Everyone's future is at stake. The attitude that water is as plentiful and as free as air is as old as man. It is an attitude which will have to change if the crowded generations of the future are to survive.

Getting The Word

The word is out that a number of political candidates are turning larger chunks of their advertising budgets away from television, to newspapers and radio. The reason given is that they want their messages to receive at least as much attention as their appearance when they give them.

Without commenting on the charismatic effect of the various candidates, that is a commendable outlook. There have been political campaigns when personalities seemed to overshadow issues. No doubt some of the more personable candidates planned it that way.

Not everyone running for office has the charismatic appeal of a movie star.

But then they are not auditioning for Broadway or Hollywood, either. There is little difference between the voter who votes a particular party line because that was the way he was reared, and one who marks his ballot for the candidate with the prettiest smile.

Looking under the frosting for the substance never hurt any campaign. Too much frosting can get sickening. And when what a candidate has to say appears in print, the voter can refer to it over and over. It doesn't disappear in a fleeting second.

Inadequate Protection

Massive deployment of Secret Service agents has failed to provide the protection to candidates for the presidential nominations hoped for. The Secret Service was given the job because local police protection was judged inadequate.

What else the federal government can do is not clear. In this connection government takeover has not worked better than did assignment of federal marshals to prevent plane hijackings.

It is doubtful whether anything significantly new will be added to the technique of guarding candidates during the remainder of the current campaign. But certainly law enforcement agencies are giving it much attention.

When the next campaign year rolls around, there may be stepped-up vigilance, but the events of 1972 will be so far in the background what has occurred this year will seem like ancient history.

Unless violence can be eliminated, there is a strong possibility the typical presidential campaigns such as the nation has known for almost two centuries will become history. No candidate should be expected to expose himself to a volley of shots while on the campaign trail.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The power of man is trifling compared to that of the sun. In a single blinding second the sun radiates more energy than the entire race of man has created since civilization dawned.

If the bill to keep Uncle Sam living in the style he has become accustomed to were divided equally among all his nieces and nephews, every living American—man, woman and child—would have to get up $1,023 each in the fiscal year of 1973.

If you want to stay popular, keep your baby face. Psychologists say that people are attracted to anyone with a baby face because it kindles their parental instinct.

Quotable notables: "Is it not marvelous how far afield some of us are willing to travel in pursuit of that beauty which we leave at home?"—David Grayson.

Bright babies: What wouldn't a mother and father give to know in advance that their unborn baby would arrive mentally normal and not retarded? This may be ultimately possible through dosing with androgens, a male hormone. Medical researchers found that a high percentage of babies who received an excess supply of this hormone before birth later proved to be above average in intelligence.

Tip to mothers: If you think one of the kids has been exposed to poison oak or ivy, the best thing to do as a starter is to wash him thoroughly in soap and water.

Folklore: To bring good luck to your new car, put a horseshoe on your garage door. It must have the prongs upward and nailed there with seven nails. To avoid the plague when in the vicinity of one of its victims, spit three times and keep your fingers crossed until you see a dog.

By Carroll Righter

TUESDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day and evening to make sure you get everything about you in perfect condition. Also improve your relations with others by doing them some favors, small or large. Show you are willing to make sacrifices for harmony.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You may have to work a little harder to keep those promises you have made to others, but the effort will be well worth the trouble. First study them well and then carry through in a thorough fashion.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You have an opportunity for special recreation, so prepare yourself in a.m. for such. Improve appearance and contact charmers early. A gift for loved one will pave way for more affection in the future.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Do whatever you can to improve your home so others there can be made happier, also. Handle all basic matters without delay. Pay that important bill so it will not cost you more later on.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A day to be charming with persons who can be of assistance to you in something important. Find the right method for reconciliation with those who count. Let astrology help you.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can get caught up today on all those small chores you have left undone, so start early. Do not neglect important correspondence. Figure out how to be more successful where sales, etc., are concerned.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You can find ways to cut down on expenses so you have a larger reserve for important matters in the future. Get home and personal belongings in better shape. Show you understand finances.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You are now able to do things in exactly the fashion you like and gain your personal aims skillfully. Improve your appearance, too. Attend group affairs that can be most helpful to you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Being more aware of what others have in mind as well as knowing your own mind is wise today, then you know better what to do. Assist those who ask you for help, but teach them to stand on own two feet. Avoid moochers, though.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A fine friend can assist you in getting some point across with another that is important to you right now. Get into some group affair that can be most helpful to you. Make a fine impression on others.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Do whatever you can to add to goodwill you now enjoy especially where higher-ups are concerned. Handle those civic affairs well and without further procrastination. Take it rather easy tonight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) That plan you have in mind needs further study before you try to put it in operation. Listening to what experts have to suggest is very wise, also. Out to some social affair of worth in p.m.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have been procrastinating about certain jobs that are vital to your progress, so attend to them now. Get your home in better order. Add those new ideas and items to your wardrobe that make it more charming.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those charming young people who can get into the good graces of others by being very willing to help them gain their aims, have more order about, but you must teach while young to listen carefully to what others say, so that no mistakes will be made, and also teach not to use so many angles to get what is desired. The fields of beauty and adornment, art, cultural fields, etc., are all fine here. Sports are a must.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

My husband and I have been trying to have a baby for four years, with no success.

I am perfectly willing to have all kinds of tests, but my husband is embarrassed.

Are there any out-of-state clinics where this can be done?

Mrs. R. L., Dela.

Dear Mrs. L.: Although I cannot condone such a mid-Victorian attitude, I do appreciate that some people may be highly sensitive about this problem.

Even if you were to have the tests done in the city where you live, it would never become public knowledge. Doctors recognize the psychological implications of temporary or permanent infertility, and certainly would not want to impose a further emotional burden on either of you.

Recently, Dr. Alvin F. Goldfarb, professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, reported that more than 60 per cent of couples with fertility problems can achieve conception. In a study performed with more than 700 patients those encouraging results were obtained.

There are excellent specialists in fertility all over America who are using extensive, but standardized, techniques in an effort to help attain conception. Through your own physician, you can find one in your own town or outside your state who can give you the help you seek, and who will maintain the privacy that is so important to your husband.

Are sulfa drugs the same as an antibiotic? I was given one for a bladder infection. I wondered why I was not given penicillin?

Mr. J.R., Conn.

Both the sulfonamides (sulfa drugs) and antibiotics are capable of killing or keeping under control a wide variety of germs (bacteria) and some viral diseases. Often they are used interchangeably or in conjunction with each other.

Antibiotics are substances produced by living bacteria. Penicillin is only one kind. The sulfa drugs are synthetic chemicals which have a definite advantage over the antibiotic for the treatment of infections caused by specific germs.

The germs responsible for bladder and urinary infections generally respond better and more rapidly to sulfa drugs. It was for this reason that this chemical was chosen for you rather than penicillin.

The choice of any drug is not haphazard. The judgment to use one or the other is based entirely on the doctor's past experience.

If an infection does not respond to the sulfa drugs or to one antibiotic, another one may be tried. Germs responsible for infections can be cultured, identified, and attacked with specific drugs.

Nibbled To Death By Ducks

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The shadow of George McGovern looms bigger after the Senator's good showing in the Ohio and Nebraska primaries. If he takes California, he may very well go all the way at Miami Beach, for he will have demonstrated the organizational ability to win in both the primary and the non-primary states.

In a way it would be "back to 1896," when the Populist William Jennings Bryan stamped the Democratic Party. Bryan, like McGovern, believed that an assault on the Gold Bugs, the mysterious power attributed to Wall Street, would yield a basic reprieve for the poor. And, like McGovern, Bryan was more or less a turn-the-other-cheek man, trusting to good-will to preserve peace in the world beyond our shores.

Yet, oddly, McGovern's attitude toward the defense budget would lead by a circuitous route right back to John Foster Dulles and reliance on massive retaliation in case of any final extremity. He doesn't see this, but such is the logic of his proposal to reduce the Nixon defense budget by more than $30 billion.

McGovern claims he would not cut any necessary "muscle" out of the budget. His argument is that if we have 200 megatons of effective nuclear blast in our armament, and if the Soviets have the same, there would be little incentive on the part of either nation to push the atomic button. It is paranoia, he says to think we need to kill an enemy ten times over when we already have enough nuclear capacity to knock out 75 per cent of his industry.

So far everything is clear: McGovern believes in some form of deterrent power. The point he misses is that Leninist philosophy would never permit the Kremlin to force an atomic showdown. Lenin believed first of all in protecting the Communist homeland. It followed from this premise that the way to win the rest of the world to Communism was through subversion and the instigation of little wars. Laurence Beilenson has just given us a splendid exposition of the Leninist program in his "Power Through Subversion," which George McGovern should read.

The trouble with the McGovern defense program is that it would make the world unsafe for anybody save Soviet subverters and weapons peddlers. McGovern would cut our aircraft carriers from 14 to six. He would diminish the U.S. force in the NATO countries of Western Europe by one-half. He would take every last U. S. military man out of South Vietnam, including our advisers. He would abandon work on the new B-1 bomber, and he sees no need for the F-14 and F-15 fighter bombers. He would cancel the Safeguard ABM system, and he would stop at seven the conversion of our 41 Polaris submarines to the better Poseidon missile.

Assuming that the Soviets are going to continue their naval expansion, and to send tanks and MIGs and SAM missiles to any nation willing to further the Muscovite imperial aims, the McGovern program of retrenchment on the lesser military items would be taken as a signal that the U.S. has no intention of interfering with the unfolding of the Leninist dream. Six aircraft carriers would be unable to play a role in the Indian Ocean, the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean simultaneously if the Soviets were to foment synchronized revolutionary disturbances in places as far apart as Iran, say, and Colombia and the Philippines. We would be placed in the position of the man (was it Casey Stengel?) who complained that he was being nibbled to death by ducks.

Then, after we had lost the outer world to Leninist subversion, we would be thrown back on our reserves of atomic power. "Massive retaliation" would be the only shot left in our armory in case of a direct Soviet threat to the North American continent.

George Reeser, Circleville's sophomore hurling ace, extended his winning streak to seven in a row by shutting out Reynoldsburg, 5-0. That victory meant the district title for CHS and a chance to play in regional competition.

"Know Your Police Officers" was the theme for the city police department's bulletin board at City Hall. The board contained large pictures of all city officers, members of State Highway Patrol Post No. 65, and staff of Walt Spangler's sheriff department.

Initial work for construction of the new First National Bank building was underway. Temporary headquarters were set up across the street in the Crist building.

A victory year for CHS was in 1962 as the Tiger golf team took the SCOL championship. Among the local top golfers were Bob Fuhrman, Bruce Helwag, Tom Bivens and Tom Dickinson.

Circleville native, Mrs. Jack Pettit co-starred in "Li'l Abner," a play featuring the popular comic strip characters created by Al Capp and staged by the Independent Players of Columbus. Mrs. Pettit, the former Beverly Reid was cast as Daisy Mae.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Starkey and Jim Horn formed a local branch of a Parachute Club similar to those operated in Lancaster and Chillicothe. The two local men were both qualified as instructors in the art of parachuting and were veterans of the U.S. Army airborne jumpers.

Weather in the 90s during middle and late May which never dropped below 60 was causing concern among area farmers. The unseasonable hot and dry weather, caused early maturation of wheat crops. Minimum crop yieldage was also foreseen for oats and hay.

Following the extended dry period, Mother Nature worked overtime one weekend and served up a two-day electrical storm. Lightning destroyed three barns, split trees and struck the city's air raid alarm siren at the Pickaway Grain Co., causing the system to cut loose a full blast. Sixteen-year-old Russell Lutz Jr. lost control of his auto during the storm and ran into a barn at Moeller's greenhouse. Many streets of the city were completely submerged.

Berger Hospital received 20 magnolia trees from anonymous donors. They were planted on the hospital's front lawn.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

My husband and I have been trying to have a baby for four years, with no success.

I am perfectly willing to have all kinds of tests, but my husband is embarrassed.

Are there any out-of-state clinics where this can be done?

Mrs. R. L., Dela.

Dear Mrs. L.: Although I cannot condone such a mid-Victorian attitude, I do appreciate that some people may be highly sensitive about this problem.

Even if you were to have the tests done in the city where you live, it would never become public knowledge. Doctors recognize the psychological implications of temporary or permanent infertility, and certainly would not want to impose a further emotional burden on either of you.

Only recently, Dr. Alvin F. Goldfarb, professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, reported that more than 60 per cent of couples with fertility problems can achieve conception. In a study performed with more than 700 patients those encouraging results were obtained.

There are excellent specialists in fertility all over America who are using extensive, but standardized, techniques in an effort to help attain conception. Through your own physician, you can find one in your own town or outside your state who can give you the help you seek, and who will maintain the privacy that is so important to your husband.

Are sulfa drugs the same as an antibiotic? I was given one for a bladder infection. I wondered why I was not given penicillin?

Mr. J.R., Conn.

Dear Mr. R.: Both the sulfonamides (sulfa drugs) and antibiotics are capable of killing or keeping under control a wide variety of germs (bacteria) and some viral diseases. Often they are used interchangeably or in conjunction with each other.

Antibiotics are substances produced by living bacteria. Penicillin is only one kind.

The sulfa drugs are synthetic chemicals which have a definite advantage over the antibiotic for the treatment of infections caused by specific germs.

The germs responsible for bladder and urinary infections generally respond better and more rapidly to sulfa drugs. It was for this reason that this chemical was chosen for you rather than penicillin.

The choice of any drug is not haphazard. The judgment to use one or the other is based entirely on the doctor's past experience.

If an infection does not respond to the sulfa drugs or to one antibiotic, another one may be tried. Germs responsible for infections can be cultured, identified, and attacked with specific drugs.

Nibbled To Death By Ducks

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The shadow of George McGovern looms bigger after the Senator's good showing in the Ohio and Nebraska primaries. If he takes California, he may very well go all the way at Miami Beach, for he will have demonstrated the organizational ability to win in both the primary and the non-primary states.

In a way it would be "back to 1896," when the Populist William Jennings Bryan stamped the Democratic Party. Bryan, like McGovern, believed that an assault on the Gold Bugs, the mysterious power attributed to Wall Street, would yield a basic opulence for the poor. And, like McGovern, Bryan was more or less a turn-the-other-cheek man, trusting to goodwill to preserve peace in the world beyond our shores.

Yet, oddly, McGovern's attitude toward the defense budget would lead by a circuitous route right back to John Foster Dulles and reliance on massive retaliation in case of any final extremity. He doesn't see this, but such is the logic of his proposal to reduce the Nixon defense budget by more than $30 billion.

McGovern claims he would not cut any necessary "muscle" out of the budget. His argument is that if we have 200 megatons of effective nuclear blast in our armament, and if the Soviets have the same, there would be little incentive on the part of either nation to push the atomic button. It is paranoia, he says to think we need to kill an enemy ten times over when we already have enough nuclear capacity to knock out 75 per cent of his industry.

So far everything is clear: McGovern believes in some form of deterrent power. The point he misses is that Leninist philosophy would never permit the Kremlin to force an atomic showdown. Lenin believed first of all in protecting the Communist homeland. It followed from this premise that the way to win the rest of the world to Communism was through subversion and the instigation of little wars. Laurence Beilenson has just given us a splendid exposition of the Leninist program in his "Power Through Subversion," which George McGovern should read.

The trouble with the McGovern defense program is that it would make the world unsafe for anybody save Soviet subverters and weapons peddlers. McGovern would cut our aircraft carriers from 14 to six. He would diminish the U.S. force in the NATO countries of Western Europe by one-half. He would take every last U. S. military man out of South Vietnam, including our advisers. He would abandon work on the new B-1 bomber, and he sees no need for the F-14 and F-15 fighter bombers. He would cancel the Safeguard ABM system, and he would stop at seven the conversion of our 41 Polaris submarines to the better Poseidon missile.

Assuming that the Soviets are going to continue their naval expansion, and to send tanks and MIGs and SAM missiles to any nation willing to further the Muscovite imperial aims, the McGovern program of retrenchment on the lesser military items would be taken as a signal that the U.S. has no intention of interfering with the unfolding of the Leninist dream. Six aircraft carriers would be unable to play a role in the Indian Ocean, the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean simultaneously if the Soviets were to foment synchronized revolutionary disturbances in places as far apart as Iran, say, and Colombia and the Philippines. We would be placed in the position of the man (was it Casey Stengel?) who complained that he was being nibbled to death by ducks.

Then, after we had lost the outer world to Leninist subversion, we would be thrown back on our reserves of atomic power. "Massive retaliation" would be the only shot left in our armory in case of a direct Soviet threat to the North American continent.

George Reeser, Circleville's sophomore hurling ace, extended his winning streak to seven in a row by shutting out Reynoldsburg, 5-0. That victory meant the district title for CHS and a chance to play in regional competition.

"Know Your Police Officers" was the theme for the city police department's bulletin board at City Hall. The board contained large pictures of all city officers, members of State Highway Patrol Post No. 65, and staff of Walt Spangler's sheriff department.

Initial work for construction of the new First National Bank building was underway. Temporary headquarters were set up across the street in the Crist building.

A victory year for CHS was in 1962 as the Tiger golf team took the SCOL championship. Among the local top golfers were Bob Fuhrman, Bruce Helwagen, Tom Bivens and Tom Dickinson.

Circleville native, Mrs. Jack Pettit co-starred in "Li'l Abner," a play featuring the popular comic strip characters created by Al Capp and staged by the Independent Players of Columbus. Mrs. Pettit, the former Beverly Reid was cast as Daisy Mae.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Starkey and Jim Horn formed a local branch of a Parachute Club similar to those operated in Lancaster and Chillicothe. The two local men were both qualified as instructors in the art of parachuting and were veterans of the U.S. Army airborne jumpers.

Weather in the 90s during middle and late May which never dropped below 60 was causing concern among area farmers. The unseasonable hot and dry weather, caused early maturation of wheat crops. Minimum crop yieldage was also foreseen for oats and hay.

Following the extended dry period, Mother Nature worked overtime one weekend and served up a two-day electrical storm. Lightning destroyed three barns, split trees and struck the city's air raid alarm siren at the Pickaway Grain Co., causing the system to cut loose a full blast. Sixteen-year-old Russell Lutz Jr. lost control of his auto during the storm and ran into a barn at Moeller's greenhouse. Many streets of the city were completely submerged.

Berger Hospital received 20 magnolia trees from anonymous donors. They were planted on the hospital's front lawn.

Mrs. William Mason, a prominent community citizen, died at the age of 92 following a lengthy illness. Her husband preceded her in death 27 years earlier.

The Circleville Swim Club became a member of the Amateur Athletic Union and participated in AAU invitational Members were John O'Hara, David Russell, Jerry Shasteen, Fred Rickey, Joe Speakman, Mike Merriman, Jim Spaulding, Bette Fraser, Mary Kathe, Linda Cook, Louise Adkins, Jane Kutler and Kathy O'Brien.

NEW YORK (AP) — President Nixon's visit to Russia was at the top of television news over the weekend and, naturally, was the principal subject of CBS's Sunday evening "60 Minutes."

Morley Safer flew to Moscow about three weeks ago and with a Soviet film crew and an official Soviet guide—both required by the authorities—made a sort of visual baedeker suggesting what the Nixon party might find in the Russian capital.

Moscow in 1972 seems to have the same concrete-and-steel profile of other great cities of Europe and the United States, broken here and there by the onion-shaped domes of old churches and the neo-gothic buildings favored in Stalin's regime.

Safer found that food and goods were in abundant supply but that cigarettes, liquor and entertainment were expensive. A ride in Moscow's immaculate clean, fast subway system costs about four cents; housing is in short supply despite the building in progress, but rents take only about five per cent of a man's income.

It was a bland, good-humored, timely guided tour.

Later, the program reran film of President Nixon's "kitchen debate" in Moscow 13 years ago when the then vice president had an exchange with Nikita Khrushchev and for which Nixon himself supplied the narration upon his return home.

Finals of the "Miss U.S.A. Beauty Pageant" Saturday night on CBS came live from the garish stage of the auditorium of resort hotel in Puerto Rico I dragged along for two hours before Miss Hawaii was chosen from among 51 contestants.

There were frequent breaks for musical numbers by local talent. Helen O'Connell and Bog Barker read their gushing lines with smiling sincerity, heaven knows how. The whole thing could have been handled neatly in one hour.

Hope Rises For Wallace

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP) — ABC News has reported that a nurse saw one of Alabama Gov. George Wallace's toes move Sunday but that doctors did not make it public because they were not sure if it meant the paralysis was subsiding.

Newsman Steve Bell said Sunday he had learned Wallace also told a doctor, who had been called to his bedside by the nurse, that he felt a sensation when the doctor touched his toe.

Wallace has been paralyzed in both legs since he was shot four times Monday at a campaign rally in Laurel, Md. One bullet remains lodged in his spine. Doctors hope to operate and remove that slug sometime this week.

In another development Sunday, sources in Wallace's temporary campaign headquarters at the hospital said the governor will be transferred to a Birmingham medical center when the weather clears. It was cloudy and rainy here over the weekend.

Arthur Bremer, 21, of Milwaukee, the man accused of shooting the Democratic presidential hopeful, remains in jail at Towson, Md., on $200,000 bond.

Ohio Weekend Traffic Kills 15

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio's weekend traffic death count dropped for the fourth straight week as at least 15 were killed in accidents between Friday evening and Sunday night.

Last week 17 died, and 18 were killed the week before that.

This weekend's toll included at least two double-fatality accidents, one in Sandusky County and one in Columbus. Both occurred Sunday. Also killed over the weekend were a three-year-old girl who ran in front of a car in Pricetown and a motorcyclist who collided with a car in Coneaut. The dead:

SATURDAY

JACKSON — Leah Rae Workman, 24, Hamden, in a one-car accident on a rural Jackson County road near Hamden.

WARREN — Carolyn Gill, 25, Youngstown, when the car in which she was riding crashed off a rural road in Trumbull County.

PAINESVILLE — William Nasca, 22, of near Painesville, when his car turned over on a rural road near Painesville.

MEDINA — Christopher Swigle, 87, Richfield, when his car crashed into a guardrail on Ohio 18 in Medina County.

FINDLAY — Robert Mathis, 18, Findlay, when his car went out of control and slammed into a tree on Ohio 37 just outside Findlay.

SUNDAY

TROY — Anita Guggenbeiler, 50, Troy, in a one-car accident just north of Troy on a Miami County road.

COLUMBUS — Pamela Walker, 18, and Bryan Garner, 24, both of Columbus in a two-car crash on the city's far east side.

PORTSMOUTH — Janet Priode, 25, Portsmouth when the car in which she was riding went out of control and crashed on Ohio 104 in northern Scioto County.

FREMONT — Floyd Long, 77, and his wife Lois, 76, in a two-car crash in Sandusky County.

CONNEAUT — Terry Dinger, 21, of Conneaut, when his motorcycle collided with a car in Conneaut.

PRICETOWN — Kim Anderson, 3, of the Toledo area, when she darted in front of a car in Pricetown, Mahoning County, where her parents were visiting.

GRANVILLE — Ethel Mallevi, 69, Coshocton, in a two-car accident on Ohio 16 near Granville in Licking County in which five other persons were injured, three critically.

YOUNGSTOWN — Robert Hassey, 36, Youngstown, when his car struck a utility pole in Youngstown.

Columbus Hearings Set On Developers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Housing and Urban Development plans to hold hearings in Columbus, Ohio, this fall on problems faced by the public in dealing with sales made by land developers. No date has been set.

The hearings will be part of a series to be held by the department across the country in a crackdown on unscrupulous land developers who mislead and dupe purchasers.

"We're going throughout the country to find out what problems they are having and to identify the fast-talking, silver-tongued sharpies who are causing those problems," said George Bernstein, interstate land sales administrator.

Cleveland Sets Rock Concert

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The fund-raising rock concert at Cleveland's Edgewater Park had everything — including a surprise visit from Mayor Ralph Perk, who told the crowd the city would stage a rock concert Aug. 13.

Some 35,000 persons jammed the lakeside park Saturday afternoon to listen to big name groups as well as less well known bands. Volunteers cleaned up debris left from the concert-goers Sunday.

"Our concert will be half rock, half contemporary," Perk told the 15,000 remaining persons at the concert when he arrived late in the evening.

Lose 20 Pounds In Two Weeks!

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet
During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full!" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way. It's the diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is honestly a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $2.00 ($2.25 for Rush Service — Cash is O.K. — to: Ski Team Diet, P.O. Box 15493, San Diego, California 92115. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do!

President Signs Black Lung Bill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A new federal black lung benefits bill has been signed into law by President Nixon, forestalling a strike forecast to hit the coal fields if he had not done so.

"The President's action indicates that he understands that this act is necessary to provide an adequate program for miners with pneumoconiosis," Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W. Va., said. "And it also is necessary to correct the oversights of the 1969 act, which excluded children and orphans of miners disabled by black lung."

The 1972 Black Lung Benefit Act was signed by Nixon Saturday, shortly before he left for Moscow. The first word of the signing of the bill, which the administration had opposed, came from West Virginia Gov. Arch A. Moore Jr.

LCI Jaycees Seek Work On Outside

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — The Miami Valley chapter of the Jaycees at the Lebanon Correctional Institute — about 100 inmates — want more outside-the-wall community projects.

The unique program, founded in 1968 by the Jaycee chapters of Lebanon and Middletown, has had a number of "inside" projects, such as repairing toys for poor children for Christmas.

But on Saturday, ten inmates were allowed out to help the Lebanon Jaycees start building a baseball field at Lebanon High School. They expect to return next week to complete the job.

"The greatest benefits are good relations between the chapters and having the manpower to get the job done said Chet Watson, Lebanon chapter president.

"Not many of us were involved in community projects before," said prisoner Thomas Butt, of Piqua, Ohio. "This could be a step toward returning to community involvement when we return to society."

"All of the inmates are anxious to work on the project," said LCI chapter president Al Lederer. "We are pleased to do something for the community."

Imom Mobley, LCI officials and chapter advisers, said the program was in keeping with the philosophy of LCI's recently appointed Superintendent William Dallman.

Presbyterians Ease Strictures

DENVER (AP) — Under certain circumstances, lay members of the United Presbyterian Church may now administer baptism and the Lord's Supper, a role traditionally limited to ordained clergy.

The denomination also has modified its historic stand favoring infant baptism, saying that parents just as rightfully may postpone the baptism of children to an age of decision.

The changes in the disciplines of the 3.1-million-member Church were approved over the weekend by its nine-day governing assembly, which runs through Wednesday.

Arson Investigators Probe Cincy Blaze

CINCINNATI (AP) — Arson investigators continued today to look for the cause of a fire that heavily damaged three buildings and forced the evacuation of a church in the West End section Sunday.

Fire Chief Bert Lagananni called the fire "suspicious" and said there had been a rash of fires in vacant buildings recently. All were marked for demolition as part of the city's Queensgate II urban renewal project.

The Jerial Baptist Church was evacuated during the fire, but firemen were able to keep the flames away from the burning nearby structures. Two firemen were slightly injured.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The fund-raising rock concert at Cleveland's Edgewater Park had everything — including a surprise visit from Mayor Ralph Perk, who told the crowd the city would stage a rock concert Aug. 13.

Some 35,000 persons jammed the lakeside park Saturday afternoon to listen to big name groups as well as less well known bands. Volunteers cleaned up debris left from the concert-goers Sunday.

"Our concert will be half rock, half contemporary," Perk told the 15,000 remaining persons at the concert when he arrived late in the evening.

Lose 20 Pounds In Two Weeks!

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet
During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way. It's the diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is honestly a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $2.00 ($2.25 for Rush Service — Cash is O.K. — to: Ski Team Diet, P.O. Box 15493, San Diego, California 92115. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do!

Arson Investigators Probe Cincy Blaze

CINCINNATI (AP) — Arson investigators continued today to look for the cause of a fire that heavily damaged three buildings and forced the evacuation of a church in the West End section Sunday.

Fire Chief Bert Lukananni called the fire "suspicious" and said there had been a rash of fires in vacant buildings recently. All were marked for demolition as part of the city's Queensgate II urban renewal project.

The Jerial Baptist Church was evacuated during the fire, but firemen were able to keep the flames away from the burning nearby structures. Two firemen were slightly injured.

Woods-Abnee Wedding Vows Read In First Presbyterian Church

MRS. WILLIAM CONLEY ABNEE

Miss Deborah Anne Woods and Mr. William Conley Abnee were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at First Presbyterian Church in Circleville.

The double ring ceremony was performed 3:30 p.m. by the Rev. Henry A. Waters before the altar decorated with baskets of gladioli and pompon mums, baskets of huckleberry foliage and seven-branch candelabra.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Woods, 575 Lancaster Pike. Mr. Abnee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Abnee, Mt. Olivet, Ky.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory silk satin and alencon lace gown in the A-line design. The empire, beaded lace bodice, featured a sheer satin organza yoke with a beaded cameo lace collar. The full bishop sleeves were of organza with lace motifs and wide beaded lace encircled the hemline. Her chapel length mantilla of silk illusion edged in alencon lace was attached to a beaded lace and satin bonnet. The bride carried a bouquet of red and pink sweetheart roses, white miniature carnations, stephanotis and babies' breath. She carried a handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother to which was attached a heart shaped charm belonging to her maternal great-grandmother and her mother's amethyst ring.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Amy Woods. She wore a floor length gown of blue, pink and orange flowered chiffon over taffeta, and a pink picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink mums and babies' breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Robinson of Circleville, Miss Robin Cornett of Hindman, Ky. and Miss Jane Talbert of Carlisle, Ky. Miss Kristina Moeller, Indianapolis, Ind., cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The attendants were gowned identically to the maid of honor and carried matching bouquets.

Miss Andrea Brown of Dayton, a cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Mr. Abnee's best man was Mr. Robert Talbert of Lexington, Ky. Ushers were Mr. Roger Hawkins, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. Wayne Fryman, Winchester, Ky.; Mr. Kent Mann, Danville, Ky. and Mr. Russell Gilliam, Anderson, Ind.

Mrs. Woods selected for her daughter's wedding a Nile green chiffon over taffeta floor length gown with long sleeves. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Mrs. Abnee wore a floor length gown of aqua knit and a corsage of pink roses.

Guild Meets In Home Of Mrs. Timmons

Berger Hospital Guild 30 met Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Hoyt Timmons, Route 1, with 12 members and one guest, Mrs. Dorothy Souther, present.

Barbara McKenzie, chairman, conducted the business meeting. New calendars were given to each member. The balance of the evening was spent playing cards with prizes awarded to Zelma Bower, Sue Collins and Odessa Wright.

The chance gift, brought by Sue Collins, was won by Odessa Wright.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the end of the evening. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. David Dumm, Route 1.

A reception at Pickaway Arms immediately followed the ceremony. The bride's table centered with a four tiered cake decorated with pink roses was flanked with pink tapers and floral arrangements.

Hostesses were Miss Kristin Glaser Newark; Miss Susan McConagha, Reynoldsburg and Miss Loretta Power, Louisville, Ky. Miss Sally Hart of Columbus presided at the guest book and the Misses Susan Sprout, Julie and Jenny Schneider, distributed rice bags at the church.

For a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn. and Indianapolis, Ind., the bride wore a navy and white polka-dot dress with a red and white belt, navy accessories and a red rose corsage.

The new Mrs. Abnee is a graduate of Circleville High School and received her AB in secondary education from the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky.

Mr. Abnee graduated from Nicholas County High School in Carlisle, Ky. and received a BS degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Kentucky last December. He is employed by United Engineers and Constructors in Newnan, Ga., where the couple will reside after midsummer.

David J. Davis, Speaker For Historical Society

David J. Davis of the Ohio Historical Society was guest speaker at the Thursday evening meeting of Pickaway County Historical Society.

Mr. Davis showed slides of Schoenbrunn Village and explained how efforts have been made to make the story of this village a living history. The guides at the village are not only in costume of the late 1700's, but they also demonstrate life in that period of time by making candles, weaving mats, cooking and farming. All the fields around Schoenbrunn are planted and harvested by hand as would have been done in the 18th century.

Mr. Davis emphasized that county historical societies such as the Pickaway County Society could convey history more meaningful if costumes and demonstrations were used.

Mrs. Donald Miller reported on the plans for pre-publication sale of the Van Cleef History of Pickaway County. This history will be republished and orders are now being taken. Money will be saved if orders are made before publication.

Dedication of the Pickaway County Historical Society's Museum will be June 18th. Guest speaker will be Dan Porter of the Ohio Historical Society.

Following the meeting the hostess committee served refreshments. Mrs. R. R. Bales presided at the tea and coffee services. Mrs. Robert Smith chaired the hostess committee consisting of Mrs. John Dunlap, Mrs. F. O. Patrick, Mrs. J. L. Chilcote, Mrs. William Radcliff and Miss Dhel Renick.

ARTUR ZAGERIS

By JUDY HANLEY

Artur Zageris, of Whitehall, is a new teacher at Teays Valley this year, teaching general and business mathematics.

Mr. Zageris is a graduate of Ohio State University and previously taught at Johnstown Junior High School for four years.

When asked how he felt about the students at TV he replied, "As usual, there are those who want to learn and those who have lost the desire to learn."

Some of his hobbies include being a spectator at sporting events; golf; reading, especially in native language, Latvian; and chess. Mr. Zageris has helped to organize chess activities in Central Ohio schools and has spent many hours this year in working with the TV Chess Club.

Mr. Zageris is planning to return next year.

UMW Vote Readied

COLVER, Pa. (AP) — Kenneth Yablonski, a son of slain United Mine Workers insurgent Joseph "Jock" Yablonski, has urged dissident coal miners to vote in the upcoming UMW election to preserve what he called their right to choose top union officials.

The Washington, Pa., attorney told about 600 members of the Miners or Democracy Sunday that there is a possibility the union's by-laws would be amended to allow national officers to be elected by the convention process.

"This is your first and last chance to have an opportunity for a democratic election for the top nine officers of the United Mine Workers," he said. "If you fail in exercising your voice in the coming election, then it's quite possible you will never have the opportunity again."

The election was ordered by a federal judge in Washington earlier this month, after he overturned the 1969 election of then incumbent W. A. "Tony" Boyle because of alleged voting irregularities.

Demand For Steel Increases After Being On Long Plateau

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The demand for steel is again on the rise after hitting a plateau for several months, Industry Week said today.

The business weekly said producers are scrambling to line up business for the next three months and cited as evidence a steel marketing manager in Pittsburgh who said bookings in a recent week topped those of a month earlier by 18 per cent.

Helping to push the demand for steel higher are purchases by the automotive, appliance and mobile home industries, the magazine said.

Industry Week said steel company analysts estimate shipments by domestic mills will total 2.5 million net tons in the second quarter compared to the 21.2 million net tons shipped in the first three months.

The magazine said analysts also forecast second half steel deliveries at a record 47.8 million net tons — which would be 40 per cent higher than the same period last year.

Industry Week said the construction industry will help boost steel demand in the period from July to December and that help will also hopefully come from the capital goods industry which continues to lag behind despite beefed-up spending plans.

Another plus factor that should crop up in the late stages of the year, Industry Week said is that price increases expected to take place in January should be announced well enough in advance to allow customers time to build up their inventory.

Industry Week went on to note that present inventories total just 9.1 million net tons — the lowest since April, 1970 — and far below the 15.9 million figure reached last July during the strike hedging period.

Industry Week estimated that U.S. mills poured 2,725,000 net tons in the week ended May 20 compared to 2,714,000 net tons the previous week before. The magazine's composite price on No. 1 heavy melting steel-making scrap was the same as the previous week level of $35.83 per gross ton.

'Amarillo Slim' Preston Wins Poker World Series

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Thomas Austin "Amarillo Slim" Preston, whose $10,000 gambling stake had dwindled to $1,700, won the "world series of poker" and $80,000 today.

Preston, of Amarillo, Tex., was the survivor in a 22-hour contest that started with eight high stakes poker players.

Preston cleaned out his remaining opponent Walter Clyde "Pug" Pearson of Nashville Tenn. with a full house after eight hours of play between them.

Pearson had been playing a tight "grind" game, whittling Preston's pile down with $600 and $1,000 hands.

"I never have nothing in my hand except when there's real money on the table" drawled Amarillo Slim.

During most of the game the black $100 chips moved back and forth across the table in a void of studied silence.

Eight players, each staked to $10,000, began the series with an agreement to play until one player remained with $80,000 and everyone else was broke.

When play broke up for three hours rest early Thursday one of the three remaining players, Adrian "Texas Dolly" Doyle, dropped out, saying he felt dizzy and nauseous.

The other two could have split his $20,000 holdings under the rules but shrugged it off.

"He's a good old boy," said Slim. "I don't take no stake I didn't win."

The game was "Hold-em."

variation of seven-card stud. Two cards are dealt face down to each player first are dealt face-up in the center and the best five-card hand wins.

Demand For Steel Increases After Being On Long Plateau

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The demand for steel is again on the rise after hitting a plateau for several months, Industry Week said today.

The business weekly said producers are scrambling to line up business for the next three months and cited as evidence a steel marketing manager in Pittsburgh who said bookings in a recent week topped those of a month earlier by 18 per cent. Helping to push the demand for steel higher are purchases by the automotive, appliance and mobile home industries, the magazine said.

Industry Week said steel company analysts estimate shipments by domestic mills will total 2.5 million net tons in the second quarter compared to the 21.2 million net tons shipped in the first three months.

The magazine said analysts also forecast second half steel deliveries at a record 47.8 million net tons — which would be 40 per cent higher than the same period last year.

Industry Week said the construction industry will help boost steel demand in the period from July to December and that help will also hopefully come from the capital goods industry which continues to lag behind despite beefed-up spending plans.

Another plus factor that should crop up in the late stages of the year, Industry Week said is that price increases expected to take place in January should be announced well enough in advance to allow customers time to build up their inventory.

Industry Week went on to note that present inventories total just 9.1 million net tons — the lowest since April, 1970 — and far below the 15.9 million figure reached last July during the strike hedging period.

Industry Week estimated that U.S. mills poured 2,725,000 net tons in the week ended May 20 compared to 2,714,000 net tons the previous week before. The magazine's composite price on No. 1 heavy melting steel-making scrap was the same as the previous week level of $35.83 per gross ton.

'Amarillo Slim' Preston Wins Poker World Series

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Thomas Austin "Amarillo Slim" Preston, whose $10,000 gambling stake had dwindled to $1,700, won the "world series of poker" and $60,000 today.

Preston, of Amarillo, Tex., was the survivor in a 22-hour contest that started with eight high stakes poker players.

Preston cleaned out his remaining opponent, Walter Clyde "Pug" Pearson of Nashville Tenn., with a full house after eight hours of play between them.

Pearson had been playing a tight "grind" game, whittling Preston's pile down with $600 and $1,000 hands.

"I never have nothing in my hand except when there's real money on the table" drawled Amarillo Slim.

During most of the game the black $100 chips moved back and forth across the table in a void of studied silence.

Eight players, each staked to $10,000, began the series with an agreement to play until one player remained with $80,000 and everyone else was broke.

When play broke up for three hours rest early Thursday one of the three remaining players, Adrian "Texas Dolly" Doyle, dropped out, saying he felt dizzy and nauseous.

The other two could have split his $20,000 holdings under the rules but shrugged it off.

"He's a good old boy," said Slim. "I don't take no stake I didn't win."

The game was "Hold-em."

2 Men Linked To Bremer Prior To Shooting

By DICK BARNES and H. L. SCHWARTZ III
MILWAUKEE (AP) — A Milwaukee ferry manager says Arthur H. Bremer appeared with a swarthy, well-dressed companion to arrange the first of three mysterious trips Bremer made across Lake Michigan in the weeks preceding the wounding of Gov. George C. Wallace. Bremer, 21, is charged with shooting Wallace on May 15. Mounting evidence indicates he followed the Alabama governor for more than two months. Records of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad in Milwaukee show that Bremer took the C&O ferry from Milwaukee to Ludington, Mich., on April 9 and May 9. Records in Ludington show he made the 97-mile trip in the opposite direction on April 28. The C&O ferry-trainmaster, Earl S. Nunnery, told The Associated Press he recalls that Bremer and a man who appeared to be of Greek descent made arrangements for the ferry trips. A third person was traveling with the men but did not enter the ferry office, Nunnery said. This was the first report that Bremer had had companions in the weeks preceding the shootings.

FBI agents questioned Nunnery and examined ferry records following the ferry manager's interview with the AP. Bremer had been seen in Milwaukee at a Wallace celebration just 2½ blocks from his apartment on April 4, the night of the Wisconsin primary. It was in the next day or two, according to Nunnery, that Bremer appeared at the ferry office on the Milwaukee docks with the unidentified man. Nunnery said Bremer's companion talked excitedly about moving a political campaign from Wisconsin to Michigan, but never named a candidate. "This is what made the whole thing so impressive on me—the Greek, telling me how hard he's working in this field," Nunnery said. "It sounded like he was taking a whole group from Wisconsin to Michigan. Some were going to drive and some fly." When they left, Nunnery said, he peeked out his office window hoping to see a bumper sticker or some other insignia on their car identifying the candidate they were supporting. There were no visible signs, he said, but recalled seeing a third person sitting in the back seat. Within another day or two, Bremer registered at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City and was there April 7-8, according to Hotel Records. Yet by the evening of April 9, Bremer was back in Milwaukee in time to catch the 8:15 p.m. ferry for the six-hour trip to Ludington. Ferry records list his name and the license number of his 1967 blue Rambler, now impounded in Maryland. Records on the Ludington side of Lake Michigan list Bremer as returning to Milwaukee on the 8:07 p.m. ferry April 28. Between these two ferry trips—on April 15—Bremer was ticketed for speeding in Binghamton, N.Y. The Baltimore Sun reported that, at 2:15 a.m. on April 15, Bremer checked into the Sheraton Motor Inn in New Carrollton, Md., a 15-minute drive from the Laurel Shopping Center where Wallace was shot. The Sun said Bremer stayed three days and tried to check in again the weekend before the shooting but was told the motel was filled. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, another Democratic presidential candidate, attended a political breakfast in the motel that morning. On May 9, Bremer took his third ferry trip, arriving in Ludington about noon.

The weather pattern over most of the nation remained stationary today, with temperatures above normal in most sections.

With the exception of a band of showers through the Plains and rain in the Pacific North west, most of the nation lay under fair to partly cloudy skies.

Temperatures today are expected to reach the 80s or 90s from the Southwest into the Midwest. More moderate temperatures are expected in the rest of the country.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 27 degrees at Evanston, Wyo., to 78 degrees at Dallas, Tex.

Group Finds Eating Dinner Blind Can Be Frustrating

By LEE LINDER
Associated Press Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—

Being blind is no picnic, especially at the dinner table.

Try eating at a hotel banquet with your eyes covered, and see if you feel helpless, embarrassed, frustrated. I did. I was. I didn't like it. It was part of a public experiment Sunday night to test "attitudes toward blindness," by those who can see and those who can't. It was the first of six nationwide symposiums sponsored by the American Foundation for the Blind.

Actually, it was the blind helping the "blind"—a sightless man or woman offering suggestions to one blindfolded person at each table. "Don't be embarrassed, use your hands, you have two," advised my helper, Harry Bassler, 39, a Philadelphia computer programmer who was blinded at seven when a dynamite cap exploded in his face. "For years I went through frustration in eating, especially in formal gatherings. But now I use my hands when I think it is necessary, and if someone doesn't like it—hang 'em."

The aim was to stimulate discussion at meetings today and Tuesday.

"We have gone to the moon, we have learned to live under the ocean, but we haven't figured out how to get the public to accept the visual handicapped, to give them work they are capable of doing," said Francis L. Warren regional commissioner for the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare.

Fire Damages Reichelderfer Home Saturday

The Saltcreek-Tarleton Volunteer Fire Department contained a fire to two bedrooms in the home of James R. Reichelderfer, on the Tarleton-Adelphi Road, 8:05 p.m. Saturday.

Cause of the blaze was undetermined and an estimate of damage has not been completed. The two bedrooms were heavily damaged and all the furniture was lost. The remainder of the house sustained smoke and water damage.

Laurelville Fire Department assisted by sending a tanker to the scene.

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — A 46-year-old man drowned Sunday night in Wingfoot Lake southwest of Ravenna when a 10-foot rowboat occupied by him and five other persons capsized. Portage County sheriff's deputies reported.

Identification of the victim was withheld pending notification of his son, who is in the Air Force.

The other occupants—a woman and four children—were rescued.

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Warm, sunny weather is expected to continue across Ohio through tomorrow, with afternoon highs in the 80s over most of the state dipping to the upper 60s to 70s near Lake Erie. Temperatures are forecast to dip to the 50s tonight under fair skies.

A stagnant high continues to dominate the upper Mississippi Valley and Great Lakes region, including Ohio bringing the fair mild weather.

Scattered showers and thundershowers were reported in northwestern Ohio late Sunday, before drifting southwest into Indiana. Otherwise fair skies were the rule.

Haze was common over the state at dawn today, and some points reported fog. Lows ranged from the 50s in northern and central parts of the state to the low 60s south.

FORECASTS
OHIO — Clear tonight. Lows in the 50s. Mostly sunny and warm Tuesday. Highs from the upper 60s near Lake Erie to the 80s.

NORTHEAST INLAND, NORTHWEST INLAND, WEST CENTRAL, CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHWEST, SOUTHEAST — Clear tonight. Lows in the mid to upper 50s. Sunny and warm Tuesday. Highs in the upper 70s or 80s.

2 Men Linked To Bremer Prior To Shooting

By DICK BARNES

H. L. SCHWARTZ III

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A Milwaukee ferry manager says Arthur H. Bremer appeared with a swarthy, well-dressed companion to arrange the first of three mysterious trips Bremer made across Lake Michigan in the weeks preceding the wounding of Gov. George C. Wallace. Bremer, 21, is charged with shooting Wallace on May 15. Mounting evidence indicates he followed the Alabama governor for more than two months. Records of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad in Milwaukee show that Bremer took the C&O ferry from Milwaukee to Ludington, Mich., on April 9 and May 9. Records in Ludington show he made the 97-mile trip in the opposite direction on April 28.

The C&O ferry-trainmaster, Earl S. Nunery, told The Associated Press he recalls that Bremer and a man who appeared to be of Greek descent made arrangements for the ferry trips.

A third person was traveling with the men but did not enter the ferry office, Nunery said. This was the first report that Bremer had had companions in the weeks preceding the shooting.

FBI agents questioned Nunery and examined ferry records following the manager's interview with the AP.

Bremer had been seen in Milwaukee at a Wallace celebration just 2 1/2 blocks from his apartment on April 4, the night of the Wisconsin primary. It was in the next day or two, according to Nunery, that Bremer appeared at the ferry office on the Milwaukee docks with the unidentified man.

Nunery said Bremer's companion talked excitedly about moving a political campaign from Wisconsin to Michigan, but never named a candidate.

"This is what made the whole thing so impressive on me—the Greek, telling me how hard he's working in this field," Nunery said. "It sounded like he was taking a whole group from Wisconsin to Michigan. Some were going to drive and some fly."

When they left, Nunery said, he peeked out his office window hoping to see a bumper sticker or some other insignia on their car identifying the candidate they were supporting.

There were no visible signs, he said, but recalled seeing a third person sitting in the back seat.

Within another day or two, Bremer registered at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City and was there April 7-8, according to Hotel Records.

Yet by the evening of April 9, Bremer was back in Milwaukee in time to catch the 8:15 p.m. ferry for the six-hour trip to Ludington. Ferry records list his name and the license number of his 1967 blue Rambler, now impounded in Maryland. Records on the Ludington side of Lake Michigan list Bremer as returning to Milwaukee on the 8:07 p.m. ferry April 28.

Between these two ferry trips—on April 15—Bremer was ticketed for speeding in Binghamton, N.Y.

The Baltimore Sun reported that, at 2:15 a.m. on April 15, Bremer checked into the Sheraton Motor Inn in New Carrollton, Md., a 15-minute drive from the Laurel Shopping Center where Wallace was shot.

The Sun said Bremer stayed three days and tried to check in again the weekend before the shooting but was told the motel was filled. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, another Democratic presidential candidate, attended a political breakfast in the motel that morning.

On May 9, Bremer took his third ferry trip, arriving in Ludington about noon.

Unser, Revson, Donohue Form 1st Row At Indy

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Bobby Unser, Peter Revson, Mark Donohue. The names are the same. They're living on the same street for awhile again, although their house numbers have been changed.

They are the front-row sitters for Saturday's 50th running of $1 million Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Unser has the pole position, Revson the middle spot and Donohue the outside.

If it all sounds like a replay of last year, it almost is. For that race, it was Revson, Donohue, Unser.

The similarity ends there. Unser, who is beginning to accumulate more speed records than any other driver around, shot the Indianapolis Motor Speedway course records out of sight during the first full session of qualifying trials and, taking their cues, everybody else followed.

The 38-year-old Unser, oldest of two driving brothers from Albuquerque, N.M., drove one lap at 196.678 miles per hour and four laps at an average of 195.940 m.p.h. That was 17 miles per hour over Revson's 1971 records of 179.354 and 178.696, respectively.

By Sunday, when every spot in the 33-car lineup was filled, each driver who got into the field had threaded his way around the 2½-mile oval at speeds faster than Revson's old marks.

Even the 33rd spot qualifier, 33-year-old ex-stock car great Cale Yarborough, got into the act. His 179.569 top lap and 10-mile average of 178.864 would have put him on the pole last year.

The 33 starters, in fact, beat the 1971 field average of 171.665 by almost 12 m.p.h. From Bobby Unser through Yarborough, the average is 183.655 m.p.h.

Revson, 33, won the middle spot in the front row with a clocking of 192.885 m.p.h., while Donohue, driving a McLaren similar to Revson's, got the outside position at 191.408 m.p.h.

Gary Battenhausen, Mario Andretti and Joe Leonard make up the second row, with rookies Sam Posey and Swede Savage holding down the third row with veteran Johnny Rutherford.

All of the big names in championship racing got in, though some are virtually hidden in the middle of the pack. For instance, there's three-time winner A. J. Foyt stuck in 17th. And Al Unser, back - to back winner the last two years, is sitting 19th in the order.

Westfall Girls Win Track Meet

Westfall's girls track team successfully defended its championship in the recent Pickaway County Track Meet.

The Mustangs tallied 52½ points to nip Teays Valley who compiled 50½ markers. Logan Elm was third with 42 points.

Here are the results of the meet:

60-Yard Dash — Smith (T) and Pinwell (L) tie, Partee (T), Cave (L), 7.8.

880 Run — Sykes (L), Horn (W), 2:46.

High Jump — Marshall (W), West (L), Younkin (T), Guthrie (T), 4 feet 2 inches.

Long Jump — Straley (W), Furniss (W), Glick (T), West (T), 13 feet 5 inches.

Shot — Kerns (L), Hannah (T), Peart (W), Brinker (T), 31 feet 11 inches.

100-Yard Dash — Smith (T), Hansen (W) Martin (L), Houser (T), 12.5.

220-Yard Dash — LaFontaine (LE), Woolever (T), Marshall (W) and Kerns (L) tie, 29.5.

440-Run — Hansen (W), Schaal (L), Wardelich (T), Stür (T), 73.4.

Pacers Win ABA Title; Beat Nets

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — The Indiana Pacers' second American Basketball Association title in three years was double the pleasure and fun for Coach Bob Leonard.

"This league is a lot tougher since we won our first title," said Leonard, indicating a great deal of personal satisfaction after his team beat the New York Nets 108-105 for the ABA crown Saturday.

Leonard swilled champagne and smoked a victory cigar while pointing to "seven weeks of strain" during his year's playoffs.

"Winning the league is harder now because every team has improved since we won two years ago," said Leonard. "But my guys have also gained some experience since winning that first championship. It's a better all-around condition."

Roger Brown, who was an Indiana hero Saturday with a game-high 32 points, also was on that 1969-70 title-winner and didn't hesitate to back up Leonard's point.

"There is more talent here and to my way of thinking, a better team than our first championship club," said the 6-foot-5 forward. "We just finally put it all together."

The Pacers waited until the arduous playoffs to finally "put it together," as Brown said. They finished the season in second place, 13 games behind Western champion Utah. Then, they had to beat Denver and the Stars in seven-game sets before facing the Nets in the finals, which went six games.

Morgan's, Legion, Oilers Win Tilts

Morgan's Sporting Center, Circleville Oil and American Legion were all winners in slow pitch softball action at Ted Lewis Park Sunday afternoon.

The Morgan nine downed Dupont G Shift 17-11 with Brian Herron hurling the win. Darrel Grieger clobbered a grand slam homer and Herron clubbed a homerun for the winners.

Circleville Oil beat PPG 14-6 with Lester Smith tossing the win.

Kelly Boyer and David Hannahs each hit home runs and both went 3 for 4 at the plate. Terry Anderson also hit 3 for 4 at the plate for the winning team.

American Legion won over the Hartley Builders 15-11 with Dave Hicks and Tom Wright throwing the win.

John Hunt and Wright had two hits for Legion.

Former Michigan State stars Herb Adderley and Dave Manders are members of the champion Dallas Cowboys.

440 Relay — Logan Elm, Teays Valley, 59.0.

880 Relay — Westfall, 2:10.

Discus — Hannah (T), Kerns (L), Barthen (W), Peart (W), 88 feet 5 inches.

Basketball Throw — C. Schieich (W) Hannah (T), Peart (W), Havens (T), 71 feet 7½ inches.

Baseball Throw — Havors (T), Barnhart (L), C. Schieich (W), 166 feet 4 inches.

50-Yard Hurdles — J. Schieich (W) and Partee (T) tie, Clem (W), Hoffman (T), 8.8.

Piketon Driver Wins At Atomic

CHILLICOTHE — Leading all of the way and avoiding the mechanical problems and wrecks that reduced the starting field by half, Charles McCann of Piketon was the super-modified victor in Atomic Speedway's second racing meet of the season Saturday night.

From his starting position on the outside in the front row, McCann bounced into the lead at the start and he never surrendered it for the 25 laps, with pole-sitting Jim Meeker of Chillicothe pressing him most of the way and finishing second.

George Harbour of Apple Grove, W. Va., was third.

Sam Erwin of Portsmouth was the fastest qualifier after winning the opening night feature, but he was knocked out by a 10th lap collision that also sidelined Paul Barnes of Belpre, the night's only double winner in the helmet dash and consi.

Barnes duelled with Ed Lute all of the way in the helmet dash for the four fastest cars and Erwin also slipped by at the finish for runner-up honors.

Spike Spears of Chillicothe led all of the way in the fast heat and Harbour was the winner of the opening heat.

Mo Beeler of Chillicothe led the wreck-slowed suler stock feature for the first 17 laps until an overheated engine put him out and gave the advantage to Skip Waterman of Columbus. Jerry McDonald was the runner-up and Bob Crace was third.

Another 10th lap pile-up rolled Ernie Budd, Bud Newman and Paul Rhodes over the backstretch and out of action, with one of the drivers later hospitalized for a check-up.

The young Beeler and Tom Park had traded the lead all of the way in the opening heat before the former took over in the fourth turn, with Bob Crace squeezing by for second.

Fred Payne of Chillicothe was in front all of the way in the second heat and Jerry McDonald took advantage of traffic to get by Waterman in the consi.

Atomic will hold its third race of the season Saturday night, with a special for sprint cars and midgets on schedule for Monday night under MARC sponsorship.

Mustangs Meet Unioto Nine In Crucial Contest

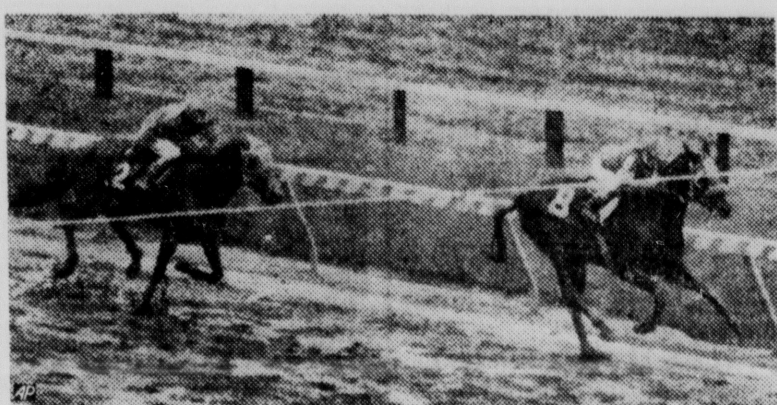

Westfall's Mustangs will meet Unioto 4:30 p.m. Tuesday at Chillicothe Veterans Field in a crucial Scioto Valley Conference game.

A win for the Mustangs will give them a 7-1 league record and a co-championship with Logan Elm who has finished league play with a 7-1 mark.

The Mustangs will be at Madison Plains Wednesday and complete the season Thursday when they host Teays Valley.

Padres And Reds Split Twinbill Sunday, 7-2, 7-0

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Fred Norman pitched his third shut-out in a row, and San Diego Padre president, Buzzie Bavasi, could finally see daylight.

"I think we've turned a corner," he said Sunday after Norman's five-hit, 7-0 masterpiece gave the Padres a split of a doubleheader against Cincinnati. "If we can continue to play the way we have lately, we could draw a million here this season."

The Padres, 7-2 victims of Cincinnati righthander Gary Nolan in Sunday's opener, have won 10 of their last 17 games under freshman manager Don Zimmer.

The Padres were the first team this year to beat such pitchers as Tom Seaver of the Mets and Steve Carlton of Philadelphia. The Padres have knocked three teams out of first place and, Saturday night, they snapped Cincinnati's nine-game winning streak.

"If they stay healthy, they won't finish in last place again this year," said Cincinnati manager George "Sparky" Anderson after his team managed only a split of four weekend games here.

Norman, a 29-year-old left-hander is the first Padre ever to pitch three straight shutouts and his 27 consecutive scoreless innings have lowered his earned run average to 1.62.

Sunday he scattered five singles, walked two and struck out nine. He began his streak 10 days ago with a 5-0 victory at Montreal and kept it going here last Wednesday with a 2-0 conquest of the Dodgers.

"Anybody in this league who pitches three shutouts in a row has really done something," said Cincinnati manager Anderson.

"It was easier to pitch with all those runs," Norman said after the Padres hit seven doubles, a club record, in his victory. Jerry Morales, Nate Colbert and Ed Spiezio each had two and Enzo Hernandez one.

Spiezio, making his first start of the year, drove in three runs and Colbert knocked in two.

Meanwhile, Nolan, 5-1, breezed in Sunday's opener after being spotted a 7-0 lead in the first four innings against Bill Greif, 3-5, Mark Schaeffer

County Schools Qualify Six For State Track Meet

Pickaway County track teams qualified six members for the State Meet this coming weekend after Saturday's competition in the District Meet at Walnut Ridge.

This is the most places Pickaway County schools have ever gained in the State event. First and second place finishers in the district qualified for berths in the State competition.

Circleville's Tom Frericks, Teays Valley's Jack Brinker, Logan Elm's Tom Sykes and Punk Jones and Westfall's Rick Metzger and Chuck Kennedy all qualified for the State event.

Westfall will be competing in the State Meet for the first time and Logan Elm will be represented for the second time.

CIRCLEVILLE'S Frericks won the Discus with a toss of 165 feet 4½ inches and gained a second spot in the shot with a heave of 54 feet 10½ inches.

The Tigers also narrowly missed qualifying in four other events. Joe McGowan was third in the 440 run, 32.2; Steve Richards was third in the two-mile, 10:09; the 880 relay team, Marc Warner, Richie Speakman, Iain Griffey and Tom Shea, placed third, 1:34.7; and the mile relay team, Joe McGowan, John Ankrom, Jeff Hoffman and Richie Speakman, was third, 3:33.4.

Brinker of Teays Valley won the shot with a toss of 56 feet 4 inches.

In Class A competition Tom Sykes of Logan Elm won the two-mile run with a time of

Circleville Karate Club Opening Set

The Circleville Karate Club will have its grand opening 7 p.m. Thursday, in the Knights of Columbus Building on the corner of Franklin and Pickaway Streets. The instructor will be Dooyne Wiggins.

Wiggins holds the rank of black belt in the Japanese style of karate. He has taught karate approximately two years. He is affiliated with Ko Sutemi Dojo which is under the direction of Donald Madden a sixth degree black belt from Chillicothe. Madden will make periodic appearances to instruct at the club.

The main goal of the karate club is to provide an opportunity for people in Circleville and surrounding areas to learn the art of self defense. The club will also offer a chance for persons to engage in a regular program of physical and mental conditioning. Classes will be provided for both men and women. An attempt will also be made to offer classes for younger children.

Persons interested in the karate program are encouraged to come to the club personally or to call Dooyne Wiggins.

The Los Angeles Dodgers, 10½ games back of San Francisco last May 31, lost the National League West division to the Giants by one game.

The league will be comprised of 12 teams and anyone interested in putting a team in the league should contact Alfred Jordan, 1587 DePorres Drive, Columbus, 43219. The phone number is 614-252-9728.

Pat Dakin Winner Of Fuel Dragsters

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Pat Dakin's top fuel dragster ran the quarter mile Sunday nearly .18 second slower than the best qualifying time the previous day, but it was still good enough to win the event in the World Championship Series event at National Trails Raceway east of here.

Dakin, from Dayton, ran the quarter at an average speed of 213 miles per hour. In Saturday's qualifying round Billy Campbell of Radcliff, Ky., had streaked through the quarter at 225 miles per hour in 6.935 seconds but Campbell couldn't duplicate that performance Sunday.

Unser, Revson, Donohue Form 1st Row At Indy

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Bob- by Unser, Peter Revson, Mark Donohue. The names are the same. They're living on the same street for awhile again, although their house numbers have been changed.

They are the front-row sitters for Saturday's 56th running of $1 million Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Unser has the pole position, Revson the middle spot and Donohue the outside.

If it all sounds like a replay of last year, it almost is. For that race, it was Revson, Donohue, Unser.

The similarity ends there.

Unser, who is beginning to accumulate more speed records than any other driver around, shot the Indianapolis Motor Speedway course records out of sight during the first full ses- sion of qualifying trials and, taking their cues, everybody else followed.

The 38-year-old Unser, oldest of two driving brothers from Albuquerque, N.M., drove one lap at 196.678 miles per hour and four laps at an average of 195.940 m.p.h. That was 17 miles per hour over Revson's 1971 records of 179.354 and 178.696, respectively.

By Sunday, when every spot in the 33-car lineup was filled, each driver who got into the field had threaded his way around the 2½-mile oval at speeds faster than Revson's old marks.

Even the 33rd spot qualifier, 33-year-old ex-stock car great Cale Yarborough, got into the act. His 179.569 top lap and 10-mile average of 178.864 would have put him on the pole last year.

The 33 starters, in fact, beat the 1971 field average of 171.665 by almost 12 m.p.h. From Bob- by Unser through Yarborough, the average is 183.655 m.p.h.

Revson, 33, won the middle spot in the front row with a clocking of 192.885 m.p.h., while Donohue, driving a McLaren similar to Revson's, got the outside position at 191.408 m.p.h.

Gary Bettenhausen, Mario Andretti and Joe Leonard make up the second row, with rookies Sam Posey and Swede Savage holding down the third row with veteran Johnny Rutherford.

All of the big names in cham- pionship racing got in, though some are virtually hidden in the middle of the pack. For in- stance, there's three-time win- ner A. J. Foyt stuck in 17th. And Al Unser, back - to back winner the last two years, is sitting 19th in the order.

Gophers Deny Irregularities In Recruiting

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Paul Giel declared Univer- sity of Minnesota's recruiting tactics to be "above board" and expressed puzzlement to- day that the Big Ten office had not spoken to Gopher officials if reports about a pending investi- gation were true.

"To my knowledge," said the Gopher athletic director, "from everybody I've talked to — from football Coach Cal Stoll to basketball Coach Bill Mussel- man — everything has been perfectly above board."

"I'm going to ask Wayne Duke about it at this week's Big Ten meetings."

After the Chicago Daily News reported Friday that the Big Ten was preparing an investi- gation of Musselman's recruit- ing practices, this statement by Commissioner Duke was car- ried in St. Paul and Min- neapolis newspapers Sunday:

"From time to time this of- fice receives allegations of viola- tions of NCAA or conference regulations. An inquiry is con- ducted to determine the valid- ity of such reports."

"As a result of allegations filed with the NCAA, this office is conducting an inquiry and re- view of the University of Min- nesota athletic offices . . ."

Giel said "I'd like to know. I haven't been contacted by any- body. Our faculty representa- tive, Max Schultz, hasn't been contacted. He's been in contact with Wayne Duke, too. If it was something as important as this I'm sure we would have heard about it."

"We just can't afford to be making any mistakes. I've been talking about running a good, clean ship. We had the Min- nesota-Ohio State incident and we can't afford to have any- thing derogatory happen."

Giel became athletic director, succeeding Marsh Ryman, last December when the Gophers had just opened their first ses- son under Musselman. The bas- ketball team went on to win its first Big Ten Championship since sharing it with Illinois in 1963.

Westfall's Mustangs will meet Unioto 4:30 p.m. Tuesday at Chillicothe Veterans Field in a crucial Scioto Valley Conference game.

A win for the Mustangs will give them a 7-1 league record and a co-championship with Logan Elm who has finished league play with a 7-1 mark.

The Mustangs will be at Madison Plains Wednesday and complete the season Thursday when they host Teays Valley.

Pacers Win ABA Title; Beat Nets

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — The Indiana Pacers' second American Basketball Association title in three years was double the pleasure and fun for Coach Bob Leonard.

"This league is a lot tougher since we won our first title," said Leonard, indicating a great deal of personal satisfaction after his team beat the New York Nets 108-105 for the ABA crown Saturday.

Leonard swilled champagne and smoked a victory cigar while pointing to "seven weeks of strain" during his year's playoffs.

"Winning the league is hard- er now because every team has improved since we won two years ago," said Leonard. "But my guys have also gained some experience since winning that first championship. It's a bet- ter all-around condition."

Roger Brown, who was an In- diana hero Saturday with a game-high 32 points, also was on that 1969-70 title-winner and didn't hesitate to back up Leon- ard's point.

"There is more talent here and to my way of thinking, a better team than our first championship club," said the 6-foot-5 forward. "We just finally put it all together."

The Pacers waited until the arduous playoffs to finally "put it together," as Brown said. They finished the season in sec- ond place, 13 games behind Western champion Utah. Then, they had to beat Denver and the Stars in seven-game sets before facing the Nets in the fi- nals, which went six games.

Morgan's, Legion, Oilers Win Tilts

Morgan's Sporting Center, Circleville Oil and American Legion were all winners in slow pitch softball action at Ted Lewis Park Sunday afternoon.

The Morgan nine downed Dupont G Shift 17-11 with Brian Herron hurling the win. Darrel Grieger clobbered a grand slam homer and Herron clubbed a homerun for the winners.

Circleville Oil beat PPG 14-6 with Lester Smith tossing the win.

Kelly Boyer and David Hannahs each hit home runs and both went 3 for 4 at the plate. Terry Anderson also hit 3 for 4 at the plate for the winning team.

American Legion won over the Hartley Builders 15-11 with Dave Hicks and Tom Wright throwing the win.

John Hunt and Wright had two hits for Legion.

Former Michigan State stars Herb Adderley and Dave Manders are members of the champion Dallas Cowboys.

Piketon Driver Wins At Atomic

CHILLICOTHE — Leading all of the way and avoiding the mechanical problems and wrecks that reduced the start- ing field by half, Charles Mc- Cann of Piketon was the super- modified victor in Atomic Speedway's second racing meet of the season Saturday night.

From his starting position on the outside in the front row, McCann bounced into the lead at the start and he never surrendered it for the 25 laps, with pole-sitting Jim Meeker of Chillicothe pressing him most of the way and finishing second. George Harbour of Apple Grove, W. Va., was third.

Sam Erwin of Portsmouth was the fastest qualifier after winning the opening night feature, but he was knocked out by a 10th lap collision that also sidelined Paul Barnes of Belpre, the night's only double winner in the helmet dash and consi.

Barnes duelled with Ed Lute all of the way in the helmet dash for the four fastest cars and Erwin also slipped by at the finish for runner-up honors.

Spike Spears of Chillicothe led all of the way in the fast heat and Harbour was the winner of the opening heat.

Mo Beeler of Chillicothe led the wreck-slowed suler stock feature for the first 17 laps until an overheated engine put him out and gave the advantage to Skip Waterman of Columbus. Jerry McDonald was the run- ner-up and Bob Crace was third.

Another 10th lap pile-up rolled Ernie Budd, Bud Newman and Paul Rhodes over the backstretch and out of action, with one of the drivers later hospitalized for a check-up.

The young Beeler and Tom Park had traded the lead all of the way in the opening heat before the former took over in the fourth turn, with Bob Crace squeezing by for second.

Fred Payne of Chillicothe was in front all of the way in the second heat and Jerry Mc- Donald took advantage of traffic to get by Waterman in the consi.

Atomic will hold its third race of the season Saturday night, with a special for sprint cars and midgets on schedule for Monday night under MARC sponsorship.

Padres And Reds Split Twinbill Sunday, 7-2, 7-0

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Fred Norman pitched his third shut- out in a row, and San Diego Padre president, Buzzie Bavasi, could finally see daylight.

"I think we've turned a cor- ner," he said Sunday after Nor- man's five-hit, 7-0 masterpiece gave the Padres a split of a doubleheader against Cincin- nati. "If we can continue to play the way we have lately, we could draw a million here this season."

The Padres, 7-2 victims of Cincinnati righthander Gary Nolan in Sunday's opener, have won 10 of their last 17 games under freshman manager Don Zimmer.

The Padres were the first team this year to beat such pitchers as Tom Seaver of the Mets and Steve Carlton of Philadelphia. The Padres have knocked three teams out of first place and, Saturday night, they snapped Cincinnati's nine- game winning streak.

"If they stay healthy, they won't finish in last place again this year," said Cincinnati manager George "Sparky" An- derson after his team managed only a split of four weekend games here.

Norman, a 29-year-old left- hander is the first Padre ever to pitch three straight shutouts and his 27 consecutive scoreless innings have lowered his earned run average to 1.62.

Sunday he scattered five sin- gles, walked two and struck out nine. He began his streak 10 days ago with a 5-0 victory at Montreal and kept it going here last Wednesday with a 2-0 con- quest of the Dodgers.

"Anybody in this league who pitches three shutouts in a row has really done something," said Cincinnati manager Ander- son.

"It was easier to pitch with all those runs," Norman said after the Padres hit seven dou- bles, a club record, in his victo- ry. Jerry Morales, Nate Colbert and Ed Spiezio each had two and Enzo Hernandez one.

Spiezio, making his first start of the year, drove in three runs and Colbert knocked in two.

Meanwhile, Nolan, 5-1, breezed in Sunday's opener after being spotted a 7-0 lead in the first four innings against Bill Greif, 3-5, Mark Schaeffer

Tribe Continues Winning String

DETROIT (AP) — Taking two of three games from the Detroit Tigers over the week- end has convinced Cleveland Manager Ken Aspromonte that his club is a match for any American League East title contender.

"We faced Baltimore. We faced New York. And we faced Boston," he said Sunday. "We came here and beat Detroit two out of three and it has given our guys a hell of a lift. Now we know we're in competition with the top four clubs."

County Schools Qualify Six For State Track Meet

Pickaway County track teams qualified six members for the State Meet this coming weekend after Saturday's competition in the District Meet at Walnut Ridge.

This is the most places Pickaway County schools have ever gained in the State event. First and second place finishers in the district qualified for berths in the State competition.

Circleville's Tom Frericks, Teays Valley's Jack Brinker, Logan Elm's Tom Sykes and Punk Jones and Westfall's Rick Metzger and Chuck Kennedy all qualified for the State event.

Westfall will be competing in the State Meet for the first time and Logan Elm will be represented for the second time.

CIRCLEVILLE'S Frericks won the Discus with a toss of 165 feet 4½ inches and gained a second spot in the shot with a heave of 54 feet 10½ inches.

The Tigers also narrowly missed qualifying in four other events. Joe McGowan was third in the 440 run, 52.2; Steve Richards was third in the two- mile, 10:09; the 880 relay team, Marc Warner, Richie Speak- man, Iain Griffey and Tom Shea, placed third, 1:34.7; and the mile relay team, Joe McGowan, John Ankrom, Jeff Hoffman and Richie Speakman, was third, 3:33.4.

Brinker of teays Valley won the shot with a toss of 56 feet 4 inches.

In Class A competition Tom Sykes of Logan Elm won the two-mile run with a time of 10:05.2 and the Braves' Punk Jones had a time of 4:19 to place second in the mile.

Circleville Karate Club Opening Set

The Circleville Karate Club will have its grand opening 7 p.m. Thursday, in the Knights of Columbus Building on the corner of Franklin and Pickaway Streets. The in- structor will be Doynne Wiggins.

Wiggins holds the rank of black belt in the Japanese style of karate. He has taught karate approximately two years. He is affiliated with Ko Suteimi Dojo which is under the direction of Donald Madden a sixth degree black belt from Chillicothe. Madden will make periodic appearances to instruct at the club.

The main goal of the karate club is to provide an op- portunity for people in Cir- cleville and surrounding areas to learn the art of self defense. The club will also offer a chance for persons to engage in a regular program of physical and mental con- ditioning. Classes will be provided for both men and women. An attempt will also be made to offer classes for younger children.

Persons interested in the karate program are encouraged to come to the club personally or to call Doynne Wiggins.

The Los Angeles Dodgers, 10½ games back of San Francisco last May 31, lost the National League West division to the Giants by one game.

WINNERS — Jack Brinker left, of Teays Valley and Tom Frericks, right, of Circleville are all smiles as they both qualified for the State Track Meet in the District com- petition at Walnut Ridge.

10:05.2 and the Braves' Punk Jones had a time of 4:19 to place second in the mile.

A's Top Royals, 5-2, In Angry Duel

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"It's a long season," said Dick Williams, "and we'll play them again."

The Oakland A's manager was ready to go to war after he felt that his pitcher, Ken Holtzman, was intentionally knocked down in Sunday's 5-2 victory over the Kansas City Royals.

Holtzman collided with Kansas City first baseman John Mayberry while running out his grounder in the second inning.

He lay still on the ground for several minutes before getting up.

Williams was so infuriated by what he considered a blatant act of poor sportsmanship that he directed Holtzman to throw at Kansas City hitters.

"The first guy up's going to go down," Williams said, "so we were knocking Lou Piniella down."

Holtzman got a warning from the umpire after throwing a close pitch to Piniella in the last of the second.

Williams pulled Holtzman after six innings partly due to the incident and partly due to the muggy, 88-degree heat.

Mayberry pleaded innocent: "I thought I had him easy. He sped up so I sped up. He ran right into me, I was coming across the bag and he tried to beat me to the bag... but I beat him."

In the other American League games Sunday, the New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox twice 6-3 and 3-2; the Texas Rangers took a doubleheader from the Minnesota Twins, 5-2 and 3-1; the Baltimore Orioles bounced the Milwaukee Brewers 5-0; the Detroit Tigers trimmed the Cleveland Indians 5-0 and the Chicago White Sox nipped the California Angels 9-8.

Dave Duncan drove in three runs with two homers and Sal Bando smacked a two-run shot to give Holtzman the runs he needed for his sixth victory in eight decisions.

Southpaw Sparky Lyle came out of the bullpen to preserve both New York victories over Boston, Lyle's former team. Lyle, acquired from the Red Sox in a pre-season trade, saved Fritz Peterson's first victory in the opener. Then he came in on the nightcap to save Mike Kekich's triumph.

"When you see Sparky coming in, you feel like it's locked up," said New York left fielder Roy White, who had six hits in the sweep. "I hit against him enough to know the other hitters are in trouble when he comes in."

Doug Griffin delivered a two-run single before Lyle got Carlton Fisk on a double play and pinch-hitter John Kennedy on a fly ball for the game-ending out.

Lyle again came to the Yankees' aid in the nightcap when Kekich, who had been struggling, walked the leadoff batter in the eighth. Lyle threw another double play ball, then worked his way out of a tough jam in the ninth.

Jeff Burroughs hit a two-run homer in the sixth inning to help Texas beat Minnesota in their opener. Then pitcher Jim Shellenback singled home the deciding run in a second-inning rally that carried the Rangers over the Twins in the second game.

Merv Rettenmund ripped a three-run homer and rookie Don Baylor added a pair of solo blasts to back Pat Dobson's four-hit pitching as Baltimore topped Milwaukee.

Mickey Lolich spaced eight hits and became the American League's first eight-game winner in Detroit's triumph over Cleveland. His seven strikeouts Sunday pushed his league-leading total to 61.

Carlos May unloaded a three-run homer with two out in the bottom of the ninth to pull Chicago past California. The Angels had taken an 8-6 lead in the eighth inning with one of the runs coming on Art Kuyner's first major league homer.

NEW FOR '72 Trevino Wins At Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Lee Trevino, bold and brassy as ever, is back. He's winning again. And, he warns, he's playing golf better than ever.

"I'm hitting the ball better now than I was a year ago," Trevino said after scoring his first victory of the year Sunday in the Danny Thomas-Memphis Golf Classic. "I'm probably hitting it better than I ever have in my life."

"My putting has been off—but it came back today. I'm getting it all put together again."

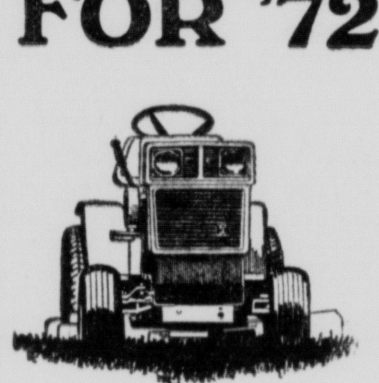

Trevino had just fired a course-record, five-under-par 67 on the double tough Colonial Country Club course and won by an easy four strokes at 281, seven under par.

He interrupted a steady flow of one-liners, quick comedy shots, funny observations to turn dead serious on two subjects—his return to winning form and his contribution of $5,000 from his purse of $35,000 to the St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

"I'm not going to just give my money away to someone on the street, but you know, there may be 1,000 kids in that hospital who will never walk. You can't buy your way in life, but this is something I want to do."

He's done it before. He's made a major contribution to charity almost every time he scored one of his 12 victories, the last of which came in October.

He lay still on the ground for several minutes before getting up.
Williams was so infuriated by what he considered a blatant act of poor sportsmanship that he directed Holtzman to throw at Kansas City hitters.
"The first guy up's going to go down," Williams said, "so we were knocking Lou Piniella down."
Holtzman got a warning from the umpire after throwing a close pitch to Piniella in the last of the second.
Williams pulled Holtzman after six innings partly due to the incident and partly due to the muggy, 88-degree heat.
Mayberry pleaded innocent: "I thought I had him easy. He sped up so I sped up. He ran right into me. I was coming across the bag and he tried to beat me to the bag... but I beat him."
In the other American League games Sunday, the New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox twice 6-3 and 3-2; the Texas Rangers took a doubleheader from the Minnesota Twins, 5-2 and 3-1; the Baltimore Orioles bounced the Milwaukee Brewers 5-0; the Detroit Tigers trimmed the Cleveland Indians 5-0 and the Chicago White Sox nipped the California Angels 9-8.

Dave Duncan drove in three runs with two homers and Sal Bando smacked a two-run shot to give Holtzman the runs he needed for his sixth victory in eight decisions.
Southpaw Sparky Lyle came out of the bullpen to preserve both New York victories over Boston, Lyle's former team. Lyle, acquired from the Red Sox in a pre-season trade, saved Fritz Peterson's first victory in the opener. Then he came on in the nightcap to save Mike Kekich's triumph.
"When you see Sparky coming in, you feel like it's locked up," said New York left fielder Roy White, who had six hits in the sweep. "I hit against him enough to know the other hitters are in trouble when he comes in."

Doug Griffin delivered a two-run single before Lyle got Carlton Fisk on a double play and pinch-hitter John Kennedy on a fly ball for the game-ending out.
Lyle again came to the Yankees' aid in the nightcap when Kekich, who had been struggling, walked the leadoff batter in the eighth. Lyle threw another double play ball, then worked his way out of a tough jam in the ninth.
Jeff Burroughs hit a two-run homer in the sixth inning to help Texas beat Minnesota in their opener. Then pitcher Jim Shellenback singled home the deciding run in a second-inning rally that carried the Rangers over the Twins in the second game.

Trevino Wins At Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Lee Trevino, bold and brassy as ever, is back. He's winning again. And, he warns, he's playing golf better than ever.
"I'm hitting the ball better now than I was a year ago," Trevino said after scoring his first victory of the year Sunday in the Danny Thomas-Memphis Golf Classic. "I'm probably hitting it better than I ever have in my life."
"My putting has been off—but it came back today. I'm getting it all put together again."
Trevino had just fired a course-record, five-under-par 67 on the double tough Colonial Country Club course and won by an easy four strokes at 281, seven under par.
He interrupted a steady flow of one-liners, quick comedy shots, funny observations to turn dead serious on two subjects—his return to winning form and his contribution of $5,000 from his purse of $35,000 to the St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
"I'm not going to just give my money away to someone on the street, but you know, there may be 1,000 kids in that hospital who will never walk. You can't buy your way in life, but this is something I want to do."
He's done it before. He's made a major contribution to charity almost every time he scored one of his 12 victories, the last of which came in October.

Zip Code . . .

med. Here's how it was conducted:

At 10 a.m. on Monday, each of the six bureaus mailed a total of 22 letters, two to itself and four to each of the other five bureaus. Both letters addressed to the bureau of origin bore first-class postage; one carried the zip code and the other didn't.

Of the letters sent to the other bureaus, one first-class letter had a zip code, one first-class was without the zip, one airmail letter had a zip code and one airmail letter was without it.

A like assortment of 22 letters was mailed by each bureau again at 5 p.m. Monday, then at the same two times on Wednesday and Friday—yielding a 72-letter test of local service and a 720-letter test of long-distance service.

Receiving bureaus logged the hour and day each letter arrived. Like most businesses in urban areas, the bureaus get their mail two or more times a day.

Jones agreed that problem areas exist, and said the service has just initiated a program to analyze them one by one and correct the deficiencies.

The AP survey indicated that local service has been speeded up within the past 15 months. The survey in early 1971 produced only one city, Houston, which handled local letters on an average of one day. This year Houston, Los Angeles and St. Louis matched or surpassed that.

But there were lapses: one letter in Houston took 63 hours to deliver, and one in Los Angeles 67 hours—more than 2½ days in each case.

In the survey, half the letters had zip codes and half didn't. A comparison of arrival times of each pair of letters showed:

—19 per cent of the letters with zip codes arrived first.

—64 per cent of the letters with zip codes arrive at the same time as those without zip codes.

—17 per cent of the letters with zip codes arrived later than letters without zip codes.

These percentages varied only slightly from those produced in the survey 15 months earlier.

The survey also compared arrival times of pairs of airmail and first-class letters mailed at the same time. It found:

—46 per cent of the airmail letters got to their destinations ahead of the companion first-class letters.

—45 per cent of the airmail letters reached their destinations at the same time as the first-class letters.

—9 per cent of the airmail letters arrived later than first-class.

Eisele To Take Peace Corps Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Astronaut Donn F. Eisele, command-module pilot of the Apollo 7 space flight, is in training to become Peace Corps director in Thailand.

"I've always been a big fan of the Peace Corps," Eisele, 41, said in an interview. "It is one of the most productive and most beneficial operations our government has."

Eisele, who will retire as a colonel from the Air Force July 1 after 20 years' service, said he thought about the Peace Corps when he began planning for his future after the military. He will take over the $29,000-a-year job in mid-June while on terminal leave from the Air Force.

CASE NO. 2993

State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, et al., Plaintiffs,

vs.

Charles L. Hanson, Defendant

Charles L. Hanson, whose last known address is Box 406, Circleville, Ohio 43113, is hereby notified that, on April 3, 1972, State Farm Mutual Insurance Company and Ronald L. Gammage, filed a Complaint in the Pickaway County Municipal Court, Circleville, Ohio, in case No. 2993, against him, alleging that on or about April 1, 1970, the defendant negligently operated a motor vehicle into the motor vehicle owned by Ronald L. Gammage, the insured of the corporate plaintiff, at or near the intersection of Route 104 and Florence Chapel Road in Circleville, Pickaway County, Ohio; that said negligence of the defendant caused damage to said motor vehicle in the amount of $787.50; that the corporate plaintiff did pay to its insured $867.50 and is subrogated in that amount; that defendant has reduced the amount of damages outstanding by making payments to plaintiff totalling $175.00; therefore, corporate plaintiff and its insured demand judgment in a total amount of $612.50 and costs. Charles L. Hanson is required to answer said complaint by June 19, 1972.

Nixon TV Plans Given

NEW YORK (AP) — Network television coverage of President Nixon's trip to the Soviet Union will include a half-hour summary of first-day activities at 11:30 p.m. EDT on CBS.

Summaries on Tuesday will be broadcast from 7 to 8 a.m. on CBS and from 7:30 to 8 a.m. on ABC, while NBC will present a half-hour wrapup at 10:30 p.m.

Further summaries are scheduled for Saturday at 10:30 p.m. on ABC and at 11:30 p.m. on NBC.

Nixon's departure on Monday, May 29, will be carried live on the three major networks starting at 9 a.m. on CBS and NBC and 9:30 a.m. on ABC.

Live and taped reports on the President's trip and his meetings with Kremlin leaders also will be included on network newscasts.

Sheriff's Department Reports Six Weekend Traffic Injuries

Four persons were injured in two minor automobile accidents last weekend. A man was hurt while riding a motorcycle and a youth was treated for minor injuries after a mini-bike malfunction threw him from the bike.

Donald L. Smith, 21,

Arrests

Donald L. Smith, 21, Columbus, failure to yield the right of way.

Thomself Mathews, 25, Chillicothe, speeding 94 miles per hour in a 60 zone.

John Blair, 44, Columbus, driving while intoxicated.

Harry Humphries, 20, Columbus, driving while intoxicated and speeding 90 miles per hour in a 60 zone.

Robert Walls, 21, Lowery Lane, malicious destruction of property.

Hunter Ray Certain, disturbing the peace.

Michael Stage, 21, Route 2, Ashville, speeding 75 miles per hour in a 60 zone.

Robert Dailey, 31, Kingston, driving while intoxicated and failure to maintain assured clear distance ahead.

Lee Stevens, 19, Route 2, Williamsport, driving while intoxicated.

Frank Lugenbeel, 26, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, disturbing the peace.

Columbus, and two passengers in his car Michael Gossard, 17, and Edward Howard, 17, were treated and released from Berger Hospital's emergency room suffering from hand injuries following Smith's single car accident 5 a.m. Sunday.

According to the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department, Smith was driving southwest on Cochran Rd. when he failed to negotiate a stop sign at the intersection of Dennis Rd.

His car went off the road surface, through a fence, cut sharply to the left through another fence and sideswiped a tree.

He was arrested for failing to yield the right of way.

Beatrice Owens, 61, Route 2, was referred to a doctor for treatment of minor injuries she suffered 12:20 p.m. Friday when she lost control of her car on Route 22, running into a telephone pole on the left side of the road.

William Anderson, 18, Route 1, Kingston, was treated for left arm abrasions and a right knee injury Sunday afternoon. He claimed a car, straddling the center line on Moccasin Rd., forced his motorcycle into a ditch.

Douglas Betts, 15, Williamsport, complained of right ankle injuries after the chain on his mini-bike came off its sprocket 5 p.m. Friday in an alley off Main St. in Williamsport. He was thrown from the bike.

11 Are Arrested In Drug Roundup

CINCINNATI (AP) — Reading, Ohio police have rounded up 11 adults and teenagers following a two-week undercover investigation.

Police St. Richard Hostick said two youths originally approached officers saying they couldn't arrange illegal purchases of drugs and hallucinogens. Officers started rounding up the offenders Saturday night.

The AP survey indicated that local service has been speeded up within the past 15 months. The survey in early 1971 produced only one city, Houston, which handled local letters on an average of one day. This year Houston, Los Angeles and St. Louis matched or surpassed that.

But there were lapses: one letter in Houston and one in Washington took 63 hours to deliver, and one in Los Angeles 67 hours—more than 2½ days in each case.

In the survey, half the letters had zip codes and half didn't. A comparison of arrival times of each pair of letters showed:

—19 per cent of the letters with zip codes arrived first.
—64 per cent of the letters with zip codes arrive at the same time as those without zip codes.

—17 per cent of the letters with zip codes arrived later than letters without zip codes.

These percentages varied only slightly from those produced in the survey 15 months earlier.

The survey also compared arrival times of pairs of airmail and first-class letters mailed at the same time. It found:

—46 per cent of the airmail letters got to their destinations ahead of the companion first-class letters.

—45 per cent of the airmail letters reached their destinations at the same time as the first-class letters.

—9 per cent of the airmail letters arrived later than first-class.

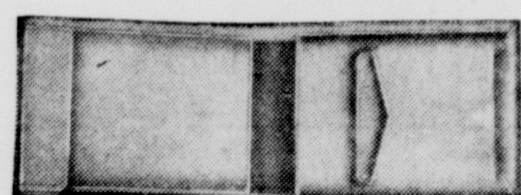

Eisele To Take Peace Corps Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Astronaut Donn F. Eisele, command-module pilot of the Apollo 7 space flight, is in training to become Peace Corps director in Thailand.

"I've always been a big fan of the Peace Corps," Eisele, 41, said in an interview. "It is one of the most productive and most beneficial operations our government has."

Eisele, who will retire as a colonel from the Air Force July 1 after 20 years' service, said he thought about the Peace Corps when he began planning for his future after the military. He will take over the $29,000-a-year job in mid-June while on terminal leave from the Air Force.

PICKAWAY COUNTY MUNICIPAL COURT, CINCINNATI, OHIO
CASE NO. 2993
State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, et al., Plaintiffs,

vs.
Charles L. Hanson, Defendant
Charles L. Hanson, whose last known address is Box 406, Circleville, Ohio 43113, is hereby notified that, on April 3, 1972, State Farm Mutual Insurance Company and Ronald L. Games, filed a Complaint, in the Pickaway County Municipal Court, Circleville, Ohio, in case No. 2993, against him, alleging that on or about April 1, 1970, the defendant negligently operated a motor vehicle into the motor vehicle owned by Ronald L. Games, the insured of the corporate plaintiff, at or near the intersection of Route 104 and Florence Chapel Road in Circleville, Pickaway County, Ohio; that said negligence of the defendant caused damage to said motor vehicle in the amount of $767.50; that the corporate plaintiff did pay to its insured $867.50 and is subrogated in that amount; that defendant has reduced the amount of damages outstanding by making payments to plaintiff (totalling $175.00); therefore, corporate plaintiff and its insured demand judgment in a total amount of $692.50 and costs. Charles L. Hanson is required to answer said complaint by June 19, 1972.

Nixon TV Plans Given

NEW YORK (AP) — Network television coverage of President Nixon's trip to the Soviet Union will include a half-hour summary of first-day activities at 11:30 p.m. EDT on CBS.

Summaries on Tuesday will be broadcast from 7 to 8 a.m. on CBS and from 7:30 to 8 a.m. on ABC, while NBC will present a half-hour wrapup at 10:30 p.m.

Further summaries are scheduled for Saturday at 10:30 p.m. on ABC and at 11:30 p.m. on NBC.

Nixon's departure on Monday, May 29, will be carried live on the three major networks starting at 9 a.m. on CBS and NBC and 9:30 a.m. on ABC.

Live and taped reports on the President's trip and his meetings with Kremlin leaders also will be included on network newscasts.

Sheriff's Department Reports Six Weekend Traffic Injuries

Four persons were injured in two minor automobile accidents last weekend. A man was hurt while riding a motorcycle and a youth was treated for minor injuries after a mini-bike malfunction threw him from the bike.

Donald L. Smith, 21,

Arrests

Donald L. Smith, 21, Columbus, failure to yield the right of way.

Ishmael Mathews, 25, Chillicothe, speeding 94 miles per hour in a 60 zone.

John Blair, 44, Columbus, driving while intoxicated.

Harry Humphries, 20, Columbus, driving while intoxicated and speeding 90 miles per hour in a 60 zone.

Robert Walls, 21, Lowery Lane, malicious destruction of property.

Hunter Ray Certain, disturbing the peace.

Michael Stage, 21, Route 2, Ashville, speeding 75 miles per hour in a 60 zone.

Robert Dailey, 31, Kingston, driving while intoxicated and failure to maintain assured clear distance ahead.

Lee Stevens, 19, Route 2, Williamsport, driving while intoxicated.

Frank Lugenbeel, 26, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, disturbing the peace.

Columbus, and two passengers in his car Michael Gossard, 17, and Edward Howard, 17, were treated and released from Berger Hospital's emergency room suffering from hand injuries following Smith's single car accident 5 a.m. Sunday.

According to the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department, Smith was driving southwest on Cochran Rd. when he failed to negotiate a stop sign at the intersection of Dennis Rd.

His car went off the road surface, through a fence, cut sharply to the left through another fence and sideswiped a tree.

He was arrested for failing to yield the right of way.

Beatrice Owens, 61, Route 2, was referred to a doctor for treatment of minor injuries she suffered 12:20 p.m. Friday when she lost control of her car on Route 22, running into a telephone pole on the left side of the road.

William Anderson, 18, Route 1, Kingston, was treated for left arm abrasions and a right knee injury Sunday afternoon. He claimed a car, straddling the center line on Moccasin Rd., forced his motorcycle into a ditch.

Douglas Betts, 15, Williamsport, complained of right ankle injuries after the chain on his mini-bike came off its sprocket 5 p.m. Friday in an alley off Main St. in Williamsport. He was thrown from the bike.

11 Are Arrested In Drug Roundup

CINCINNATI (AP) — Reading, Ohio police have rounded up 11 adults and teenagers following a two-week undercover investigation.

said two youths originally approached officers saying they couldn't arrange illegal purchases of drugs and hallucinogens. Officers started rounding up the offenders Saturday night.

* OPEN-GROOVE TRACTION — Open-groove traction provided by Steel Belts allows water to channel out on wet roads. Superior traction and skid resistance on wet roads as well as dry. * 2 STEEL STABILIZER BELTS — Two 2 steel belts are placed directly under the tread from shoulder to shoulder. These steel belts provide greater impact protection, less tread squirm for excellent mileage, greater road stability and immediate steering response for improved safety. * 4 PLY POLYESTER CORD BODY — Four piles of polyester cord make up the smooth riding carcass which serves as the base for the steel belts. * GREATER MILEAGE — The steel stabilizer belts run completely around the tire under the tread area to reduce tread squirm against the road. You benefit by getting great mileage — up to 40,000 miles.

A 4 ply polyester cord tire with "the miracle fiber." Beautiful dual whitewalls with the new look and that '78' shape. The '78 profile' of the Jet Star 120 gives you a lower, wider tire and it fits all cars. Full 4 ply polyester cord body resists impact blowouts, flex fatigue, heat, and moisture deterioration. Up to 1 1/3 more mileage than original equipment tires. The new flatter reverse molded tread and lower profile guarantees you greater stability, more road contact, and greater control on curves.
